Senator Gore Says
Case Is Hopeless;
Talkathon End Near

WASHINGTON, July 24 —UP—A leader in the Senate's record-breaking filibuster against the atomic energy bill conceded defeat Saturday night, but the longest Senate session in history droned on.

The leader, Sen. Albert Gore (D-Tenn.) told newsmen at 8:30 p.m. CST that "the fight against the bill is now one of hopeless odds."

WASHINGTON, July 24 —UP—The Senate Saturday ended the longest session in its history, recessing at 9:48 p.m. CST until 10 a.m. Monday.

At that hour, the Senate had been sitting continuously for 84 hours and 30 minutes.

His concession signalled an apparent end, starting on Monday, to organize opposition to the bill which critics have denounced as a $12 billion "give-away" to private power interests.

The Democratic leadership earlier had turned against Gore and his group of die hard opponents who for 11 days had kept the Senate in a legislative knot in the effort to sidetrack the bill.

Senate Republican leader William F. Knowland, who has been trying vainly for days to cut off the flow of talk, had promised the weary senators earlier that the chamber would recess by midnight until 10 a.m. Monday, to avoid meeting on Sunday.

Informed sources said debate on the atomic bill might continue for several more days next week, but Gore made it clear that—as far as he was concerned—the organ-

Lead Constantly Changing In Tex. Governor's Race

By UNITED PRESS

The governorship of Texas and control of the Democratic party swung back and forth Saturday night between Gov. Allan Shivers and Ralph Yarborough.

First returns from Saturday's Democratic primary carried the promise of a governor's race as close as that waged for the U.S. Senate in 1948 by Senate Democratic leader Lyndon B. Johnson and former Gov. Coke Stevenson. Johnson won that one by 87 votes and there were bitter charges by Stevenson of fraud.

DALLAS, July 24 —UP—Returns from 175 out of 254 counties with 26 complete, the governor's count stood: Davis, 6,189; Holmes, 7,157; Yarborough, 240,371; and Shivers, 236,112.

Shivers, his national prestige and his political future at stake in a bid for an unprecedented third term, and Yarborough, an Austin attorney and district judge who was easily vanquished by Shivers in 1948, waged one of the most bitter and expensive pre-election gubernatorial campaigns in recent history.

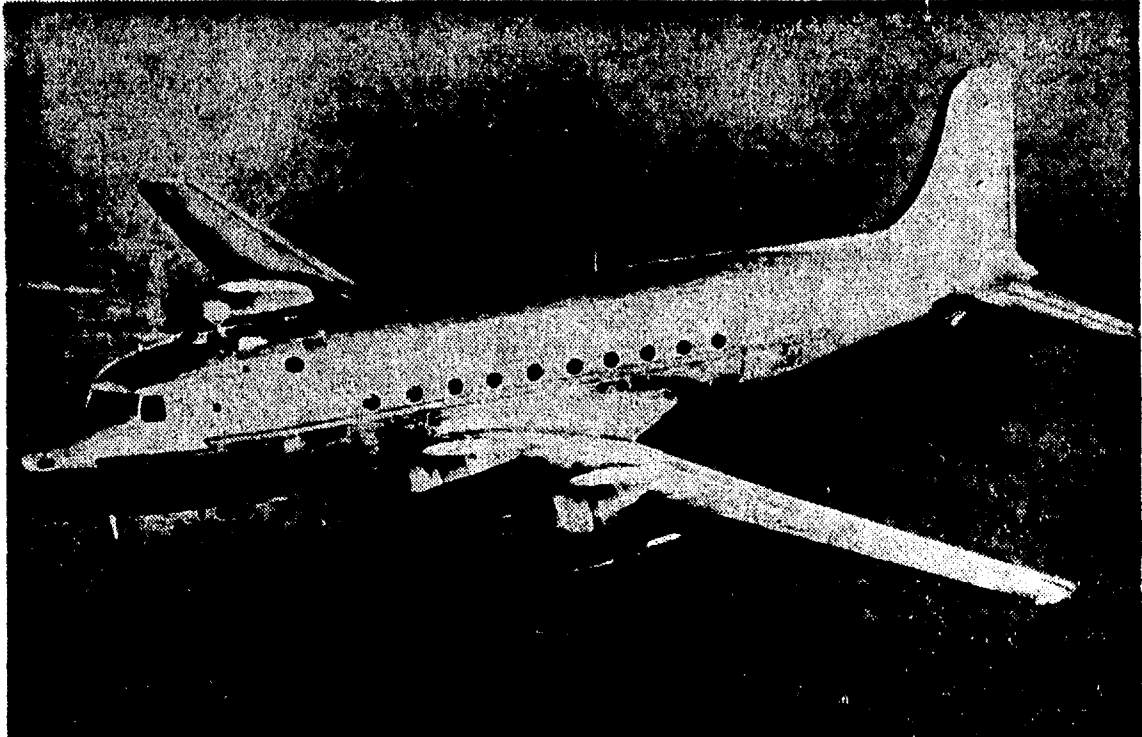

As first returns from throughout the state flowed into the Texas Election Bureau at Dallas Saturday night, the lead in the governor's race changed hands four times in the first four reports, issued over a two-hour period.

The 9 p.m. report pushed Shivers into a slight lead. Returns from 85 to 254 counties, none complete, gave him 59,228 votes; Yarborough 58,832.

Johnson, seeking re-election but remaining in Washington throughout most of the campaign, jumped into a commanding lead over Dudley Dougherty, a Beeville, Tex., rancher.

In other statewide races, only one was close—that for a place on the Court of Criminal Appeals. Lloyd C. Davidson, a member of the Court of Criminal Appeals seeking election to high criminal bench, and District Judge Alan B. Haney of Wichita Falls, were running neck-and-neck.

Incumbents Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey and Attorney General John Ben Sheppard were winning easily as expected. Supreme Court Justice Few Brewster held a comfortable lead over Alfred M. Scott.

State, Local Campaigns Nearing End With Balloting Scheduled On Tuesday

Ellender, Ellis
And Faulk Battle
For U. S. Senate

NEW ORLEANS, July 24 —UP—Louisiana Democrats nominate a United States senator and eight representatives Tuesday in a primary notable for the use of voting machines statewide for the first time.

Louisiana is the first deep South state to use voting machines in every precinct.

The three-man senatorial race is the main attraction. Three of the representatives have no opposition. Frank Ellis, New Orleans attorney and Democratic national committeeman, and state Rep. Gilbert Faulk of Monroe are opposing Sen. Allen J. Ellender's bid for a fourth six-year term in the U.S. Senate.

No central issue has emerged in the campaign, but all three are busily stumping the state.

Ellender is supported by the jointly-owned Times-Picayune and New Orleans States and the jointly-owned Shreveport Times and Monroe News-Star—World.

The senior senator is also supported by Louisiana's other senator, Russell B. Long, son of the late Huey P. Long. Ellender was a strong supporter of the elder Long.

Reps. F. Edward Hebert of New Orleans, first district; Otto E. Passman of Monroe, fifth district, and James H. Morrison of Hammond, sixth district, are unopposed.

Democratic nomination practically assures election in this traditionally Democratic state.

Republican leaders have not indicated whether they plan to enter candidates in the congressional races for the November general election. Eisenhower polled a large vote in Louisiana in 1952 and almost carried the state.

Political observers expect GOP candidates in one or more of the House races, but doubt if the Republicans will contest the senatorial race.

In the 1952 presidential race, Ellender said he would vote Democratic, but refused to campaign for candidate Adlai Stevenson. Ellis was an active Stevenson supporter.

Rep. Hale Boggs, a veteran of 10 years in the House of Representatives, is opposed by another New Orleans attorney, Maurice B. Gattin, in the Second District race.

Chennault Gives Support To Faulk In Senate Race

Citing W. Gilbert Faulk of Monroe as a man "who will work for the nation, for the people regardless of party lines," General Claire L. Chennault, retired, endorsed the local state representative as a candidate for the United States Senate.

The official endorsement, his first entry into politics throughout his long career, came Friday night over a local television program in behalf of the Monroe man.

The famed leader of the Flying Tigers of the Far East severely scored the present senator, Allen J. Ellender, who is seeking reelection, for his "Truman-Acheson following down the line." Chennault said Ellender and former Senator Tom Connally of Texas are "outstanding for their following of the Truman line."

Chennault said the country needed men "who will work for the nation and for the people without respect of party lines. We need men who love their country above either the Democratic party or the Republican party." This, he said, is what Faulk will do if elected to the Senate. The former head of the Flying Tigers pointed out that, in his opinion, the policies advocated by Faulk are "more in line with the current situation" than those of the other candidates.

Attention Here Focused On Race For Office Of DA

BY PAUL JASPER

Voting machines will be used in Ouachita parish for the first time in history Tuesday when voters from 49 parish precincts begin voting in the state-wide Democratic primary elections.

Some 40 candidates, vying for ward, district, state and federal offices, will be in the running, but complete returns are scheduled to be in much earlier in Ouachita parish this year because of the voting machines, despite their novelty to most area citizens.

This is the first year the machines will be used in every parish in the state, although some of the larger parishes have used them previously.

The number of precincts in parish has been cut from 69 to 49 this year because of the new machines, and members of Democratic executive committees have warned voters to be certain of the precinct in which they are now registered.

Burt Sperry, chairman of the Ouachita parish Democratic committee, also announced Saturday that a corrected list of the voting commissioners will be run in an advertisement in the Monroe News-Star Monday afternoon. The lists have been changed since some previously named failed to be certified for the jobs in courses held here last week.

Sample ballots and instructions on how to operate the voting machines can be obtained at the polls.

Ouachita parish voters will cast ballots for Democratic nominees for U. S. Senator, public service commissioner, 3rd district state board of education member, and district attorney for the fourth judicial district, comprised of Ouachita and Morehouse parishes.

In addition, residents of Wards 3, 5, 8, 9, and 10 will ballot for school board members from their respective wards, and voters in Ward 5 will pick Democratic nominees for the city marshal and judgeship posts.

Other Democratic nominees who would ordinarily be picked in this election have already been named, since they qualified for the offices without opposition.

One of the hardest fought battles in the generally quiet pre-election period was that of the candidates for U. S. Senator, who have stumped

British Protest Shooting Down Helpless Plane

Pilot Says Many Passengers Dead
From Red Bullets

HONG KONG, July 24 —UP—Survivors of a defenseless British airliner shot down by two red-nosed Communist jet fighters over the Red-held island of Hainan said Saturday the attack was "cold-blooded murder."

Eighteen persons were aboard the Cathay Pacific Airways C-54. One passenger was known to be dead. One of the crew members was reported "killed instantly" by the Red gun fire. Eight other passengers and crew members, including three Americans, were missing and presumably dead.

Three other Americans were among the eight survivors who were all hospitalized at Howloon Island hospital.

The British government instructed its charge d'affaires in the Red Chinese capital of Peking, Humphrey Trevelyan, to protest the attack. The British said that the Soviet-built MIG fighters which riddled the airliner could have come only from Hainan Island—a major Red air and submarine base.

The American survivors were P. S. Thachap, of Stonington, Conn.; Mrs. L. L. Parish, of Iowa Park, Tex., and her six-year-old daughter Valerie.

The three missing Americans also were members of the Parish family. Capt. L. Parish, a four-year-old son and a two-year-old daughter. The missing were presumed dead or may have been picked up by Red Chinese in small boats which observers saw leaving Hainan.

Mrs. Parish suffered a broken collar bone and "severe shock." Valerie, who was "perfectly calm" under attack, suffered only minor abrasions.

Thacher's condition was "not critical" although surgeons removed a piece of metal from his body Saturday morning.

Capt. Philip Blown, the airliner's pilot, Mrs. P. M. Thorburn, wife of a British bank official in

Six Killed When Dynamite-Laden Barge Explodes

SAVANNAH, Tenn., July 24 —UP—Six men were believed killed when a dynamite-laden barge exploded near here today.

The blast ripped through the barge as the men were drilling holes and laying dynamite for a pipeline across the Tennessee River at Hamburg Landing, about eight miles south of here.

Milton Swain, 28, apparently was the only survivor. Swain said there were seven men aboard the barge. He said the others apparently drowned or were "blown to bits."

Charlie Roberts, funeral home operator here, said he understood the barge and a boat equipped for drilling operations were tied together near the west bank and that the crew was loading the holes with dynamite when the blast occurred.

"I heard that the explosion shot 30 or 40 feet in the air, and blew the bodies to bits," Roberts said.

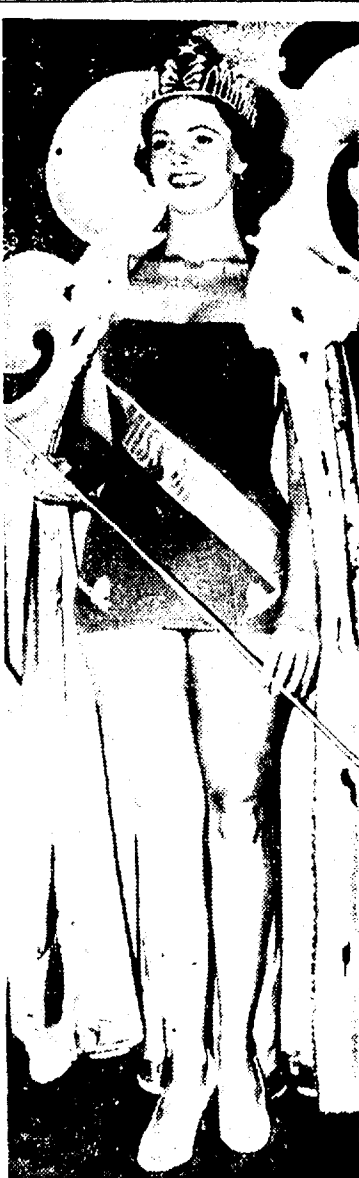

He said Swain was the only crew member who could be found. Swain said he was getting a drink of water at the time of the blast. He said he was knocked into the river by the explosion.

Swain was brought to a hospital here where his condition was reported to be fair. He suffered shoulder and head injuries, a hospital attendant said. He is believed to be an Alabama man, now living at Adamsville, Tenn.

Swain is an employee of the Houston Contracting Co. of Houston, Tex. The natural gas pipeline is being built for the Tennessee Gas Transmission Co. of Houston.

The accident occurred near the Alabama-Mississippi-Tennessee line.

The barge did not sink. The sheriff's office said fear of additional explosions prevented an immediate search of the barge for bodies.

Plan To Cut Army Now Abandoned

WASHINGTON, July 24 —UP—The Defense Department, after a new appraisal of the Red menace in the Orient, has abandoned plans to withdraw nearly all U. S. Army units from the Far East by 1957, it was learned Saturday.

It also has discarded plans to reduce total Army strength to less than one million men in 1957.

These revisions in the "new look" military program worked out last year by the Joint Chiefs of Staff, will be discussed soon with President Eisenhower and the National Security Council which previously had endorsed them.

The cutbacks were developed "when we thought there would be peace in Asia and we could get out," a top defense official told this reporter. "That is not now in the cards."

The disclosure came as Mr. Eisenhower prepared to welcome Syngman Rhee, president of South Korea, for an official visit. Deployment of American forces in his country and elsewhere in Asia will be a prime topic when Rhee sees

Wilson Sends Philippine Sea, Hornet To Stand By At Chinese-Held Island

WASHINGTON, July 24 —UP—Two U. S. aircraft carriers were ordered Saturday to speed to the spot where a British plane was shot down by Red fighter planes near Hainan Island "to cover and search operations."

It was indicated the two carriers would be the Hornet and the Philippines Sea. They are of the 27,000-ton Essex class.

The action was ordered by Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson and announced by Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

The Americans are among the 10 persons either missing or dead aboard the Cathay Pacific Airways passenger plane shot down while on a normal run near the Chinese Communist-held island.

The powerful American aircraft carriers were ordered to the scene after the United States was informed by its representatives at Hong Kong that the Cathay liner had been "deliberately shot down by two Chinese Communist-based fighter aircraft."

Dulles issued a special statement charging the Chinese Communist government "must be held responsible" for "this action of further barbarity."

He said what further action will be taken by the United States will be announced later.

At Hong Kong, the pilot and a wounded woman passenger accused the Reds of "cold blooded murder."

Capt. Philip Blown, the pilot, said two Red MIG jet planes attacked his craft. He said they were piloted by Russians.

Mystery Cloaks Wreck Injuring Two Monroians

A Monroe man lay unconscious at St. Francis Sanitarium late Saturday night, the victim of an automobile accident near West Monroe on state road 195, and a 15-year-old patient at Charity hospital was believed to be a second victim of the same crash.

State Trooper John S. Powell said C. M. Hasenplaugh was removed to St. Francis shortly after the 4:30 p.m. accident 15 miles south of West Monroe. Powell said when he arrived at the scene to conduct an investigation, he found a late model sedan overturned and badly damaged. He estimated that the auto had "skidded on the road surface of the highway, a road which had been recently repaved."

Powell was summoned to the scene by a telephone call from a Mr. Johnson at the nearby Johnson grocery, but found nothing except the overturned automobile when he arrived.

It was later learned that a Mulhearn ambulance brought the injured man to the Monroe hospital. St. Francis authorities said at 10 p.m. that Hasenplaugh had not regained consciousness.

Meanwhile, 15-year-old Louis Martin, reported also to be a Monroe resident, was undergoing examination and treatment at Charity hospital. He sustained a fracture of his right arm, believed to have been received in the same accident.

Officials have been unable to complete an accident report and the injured man remains unconscious.

A Charity hospital physician said that Miss Martin had been admitted as an accident victim, but that further information concerning the wreck had not been supplied at a late hour.

Details of the visit were not immediately released.

Legion To Hear National Commander

BATON ROUGE, July 24 (AP)—Arthur J. Connell, national commander of the American Legion, will address the closing session tomorrow of Louisiana's three-way state Legion convention.

Robert Charles Smith of Shreveport and Joyn Coyne of New Orleans are candidates for the state commander. Both are vice commanders.

Delegates spent most of today in business sessions and committee meetings.

The Monroe Morning World and News-Star were awarded conventional citations for editorials on Americans throughout the year.

Rotarians Feature Twin-Bill

Rotarians featured a twin-bill program during their weekly luncheon meeting at the Virginia Hotel. Frederick Ward of Austin, Texas spoke on juvenile delinquency and Dr. Stanley Mintz of Monroe gave highlights in the evolution of anesthesia.

Henry Bernstein, chairman of the vocational service committee, was in charge.

Ward, who is southern area director of the National Parole and Probation Association, is assisting in the survey of Ouachita Parish needs for a juvenile detention program.

The rate of delinquency among minors is increasing much faster than the birth rate, Ward told the group. The big problem is to prevent young people from moving into the adult criminal class. About 50 per cent of older criminals were juvenile delinquents, according to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Purpose of the Ouachita Parish survey is to find the extent of trouble among minors and receive suggestions of handling these youngsters so that they will not reach adult institutions.

Evaluation of the system now in use and methods of improving it are among the chief factors in the study of youth rehabilitation, Ward said.

Dr. Mintz, a specialist in anesthesia, sketched the history of anesthesia from the use of charms by tribes to relieve pain to methods currently employed.

The Chinese were the first to alleviate suffering through a doping effect. Alcohol fumes were employed as early as 1513 to lessen pain. History records that belief in the divine right of kings was illustrated by the royal person placing his hand upon the sufferer in an attempt to reduce his pain.

During the 16th century alleviation of suffering was denied so strongly that a Scotchman was burned because of his attempt to allay pain during childbirth.

Mass therapy was probably first attempted by having a priest wave a stick over many persons assembled, Dr. Mintz said.

Morphine was recovered from the poppy in 1806, and during the 1840's this anesthetic was placed in the arm after an incision had been made. During the reign of Queen Victoria of England chloroform proved effective in childbirth.

Hypnotism was employed successfully in some cases as a substitute for drugs during World War II.

Dr. Mintz stressed the development of spinal anesthesia by Dr. Rudolph Matas, a noted physician of New Orleans.

sector.

In Bonn, Chancellor Konrad Adenauer ordered a sweeping loyalty investigation of all officials in the West German government who knew John.

One source said hundreds of officials including some higherups were being checked.

This source said "there may be repercussions in the government ministries soon as a result of John's disappearance. John was very close to a number of high officials in the government."

The loyalty check was taken in Bonn to mean that Adenauer and other West German leaders now privately accepted the Communist claim that John deserted. Publicly, however, the government clung to its statement that John was abducted.

The case continued to produce a welter of unverified reports, including one that John had leaped from the third floor window of a house in East Berlin when he was under guard by Communist security police.

The Frankfurt newspaper Abendpost carried the report without giving its source and said John was injured seriously or killed in the leap. There was no confirmation in Berlin.

John had headed the Federal Office for Protection of the Constitution since late 1950. The agency is charged with safeguarding the Bonn republic against subversive activity, treason and espionage.

John recently had been under fire in the West German Parliament by opposition Socialists, who accused him of running a "new Gestapo."

In his position, John had access to top-secret information on Allied intelligence activities in the Soviet zone and knew the identities of hundreds of East Germans who regularly send out information to the West.

ized filibuster had broken wide open.

"Had our lines held firm, victory might have been won," Gore said.

"In fact, I thought it was in sight."

But those hopes of victory went down the drain during a day of back-stage maneuvering in which Senate Democratic leader Lyndon B. Johnson took a leading role.

The day-long efforts came to a dramatic climax on the Senate floor shortly after 8 p.m. CST when Johnson offered a plan for limiting debate starting Monday. It required unanimous consent for adoption.

It was stymied by threatened objections, by independent Sen. Wayne Morse (Ore.) and Sen. Herbert H. Lehman (D-N. Y.).

But, significantly, no threat of objection came from the Gore group, whose members had been closed several times during the afternoon with Johnson to work out details of the plan.

Johnson's complex proposal would have allowed a maximum of 68 more hours of talk on the 104-page bill.

Johnson's move was regarded as a major boost to Knowland's efforts to end the talkathon. Most of the filibusters are Democrats who would respond more rapidly to an appeal from their own party leader than from Knowland.

The objection of a single senator could prevent adoption of Johnson's plan, which was put forward in the form of a "unanimous consent" agreement.

However, the very fact that the Democratic leader made such a proposal indicated that Knowland could bank on some bipartisan support for the "cloture" (compulsory vote Monday. The votes of 64 senators — two thirds of the entire membership — is necessary to invoke cloture.

3-Car Collision Results In Injury To Bastrop Negro

A Bastrop Negro suffered minor injuries in a three-car collision in the 1600 block of DeSiard Street early yesterday afternoon.

According to the report of the investigating officer, Martha Wade, 31, Negro, of Monroe, was driving east on DeSiard Street, when she rammed the rear of a car driven by Johnnie Butler, 28, route one, Monroe, causing Butler's car to strike the rear of another east-bound car driven by DuWayne C. Richardson, 20, route three, West Monroe.

George Crowder, 42, Negro, route two, Bastrop, an occupant in the car driven by the Wade woman, suffered a cut forehead. He was taken to Charity Hospital. Crowder was also the owner of the vehicle.

After being treated for his injuries, Crowder was booked by officers on a public intoxication charge. His bond was set at $15.

The Wade woman was charged with reckless driving, driving while under the influence of intoxicants, and having no driver's license. Her bond was set at $475.

the chief executive and other ranking American officials after his arrival here Monday. On Wednesday Rhee is scheduled to address a joint session of Congress.

The Joint Chiefs' plans, as now revised, call for total manpower—Army, Navy, Marines and Air Force—of 3.47 million in 1957 instead of the 2.81 million previously projected.

There now are 3.33 million men in uniform.

With the Army bearing the brunt of cuts still scheduled, some withdrawals and redeployment in the Pacific this year are inevitable. The Army, which now has 1,409,500 men, is scheduled to drop to 1,173,000 in 12 months and remain at that level.

Wiley Says Free World Must Give Warning To Reds

WASHINGTON, July 24 (AP)—Sen. Wiley (R-Wis.) said today the formation of a Southeast Asia defense pact will take considerable time and urged in the meanwhile a free-world "declaration of intention" against further Communist aggression.

Wiley, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, made his proposal in a Senate speech outlining five suggestions for action in the light of "the serious implications of the partitioning of Viet Nam."

No realist would gloss over "the very unfortunate reverse which the free world has suffered" in Indo-China, Wiley said, but he declared this country and its allies must profit from its experience rather than "mourn over spilt milk" and engage in bitter recriminations.

"As an interim protection to fill what is clearly a dangerous vacuum in Southeast Asia," Wiley said, "there should be a prompt declaration of intention on the part of all the free nations—including the so-called neutralist bloc—against further aggression by means of external invasion or internal penetration."

"Simultaneously," he continued, "every effort should be made to move promptly ahead of the longer range goal of hard and fast military commitments under a Southeast Asia defense pact."

Wiley said, "It is clear that the actual formation of the longer-range Southeast Asia defense pact will take considerable time."

He said, however, that, "A vacuum should not be permitted to continue which the Communists would obviously quickly exploit to their own advantage."

THE BEST "DEAL" YOU CAN GET ANYWHERE IS BUILT INTO THE YORK ROOM AIR CONDITIONER!

When you buy a Room Air Conditioner, you buy comfort—cool summer comfort that lets you sleep nights. You don't just buy a box that sticks in the window! You buy what the works inside the box will give you.

If you remember this simple fact when you shop, you won't fall victim to the "cut-price" trap. You won't be taken in by cheaper units which only seem to cost less in the beginning—which have "cut-rate" prices compared to YORK's "quality" prices.

When you buy a Room Air Conditioner, you want it not just for this summer, but for next summer too—and the summer after that. You certainly don't want it to stop working shortly after you've made your last payment.

YORK Room Air Conditioners are still giving comfort after 16 years of satisfactory service!

Stop and think a moment! Many new, unknown manufacturers of Room Air Conditioners may not be in business that long!

YORK has been in the mechanical cooling business since 1885, and pioneered most of the developments which have made Room Air Conditioners possible!

YORK knows, better than most, what makes a Room Air Conditioner give good service year after year—and when you divide the original price of a Room Air Conditioner by the years it gives you good service, then you've arrived at the true price.

That's why YORK is probably THE LOWEST-PRICED ROOM AIR CONDITIONER ON THE MARKET TODAY! The best "deal" you can get anywhere is built into the YORK Room Air Conditioner.

So before you fall victim to the "cut-price" trap, stop in and look at the YORK Room Air Conditioner. See for yourself what you really get!

Voting Changed Considerably In Ouachita Parish

When the 26,652 registered voters in Ouachita Parish go to the polls Tuesday, they will have a vast number of changes in the procedures as well as voting places. Mrs. Mae Lucky, parish registrar of voters, said Saturday.

The greatest single change will be the use of voting machines, which for the first time in the history of this parish will be used in a primary election. The use of the machines primarily brought on the change in the number of polling places and caused the reduction from 69 to 49 throughout the parish.

In order to facilitate the voting for the many voters in the parish, Mrs. Lucky released a detailed description of the voting places and the areas included for each. This has run as advertising on several occasions, along with the list of deputies and commissioners, but the registrar of voters pointed out many may have missed the listing of the voting places.

No explanation is necessary for most of the wards, for all but wards 3, 5 and 10 have only one or two precincts. However, these three wards, which include the cities of Monroe and West Monroe, have changed many of the precincts.

The wards which have had no changes and the voting places in each ward are:

Ward 1 precincts are located in the clubhouse in Fairbanks and Stall's Pharmacy in Sterlington.

Ward 2 with only one precinct is located in the Swartz school, Swartz.

Ward 4, one precinct, Lowe's Store on the Columbia Road.

Ward 6, two precincts, Calhoun High School and Finley's Service Station, Calhoun.

Ward 7, one precinct, Roberts & Son Store, Cadville.

Ward 8, one precinct, Woodlawn School on the Arrant Road.

Ward 9, one precinct, Hendrix's Store.

Wards where changes have been made include:

Ward 3, including all the portion of Monroe south of the Illinois Central Railroad, has 12 precincts.

These include Precinct 1, Court-house building; Precinct 2, Fire Station on Stone Avenue; Precinct 3, McCarthy Bakery, 701 Jackson Street; Precinct 4, Fire Station, Orange and South Fifth Streets; Precinct 5, Lover's Lane Laundry; Precinct 6, Fire Station, Lee Avenue and Forest Street; Precinct 7, Plum Street School, South Fifth and Plum Streets; Precinct 8, Guy Swartz's Grocery on Lee Avenue; Precinct 9, Lida Benton school, Lee Avenue; Precinct 10, Rainbow Grocery on South Grand street; Precinct 11, Hanson's Grocery, Columbia Road; and Precinct 12, Galaspy's Grocery.

Ward 5, which includes all of West Monroe and some of the surrounding areas, has 14 precincts.

These are: Precinct 1, Agricultural building on Cypress Street; Precinct 2, Old City Hall; Precinct 3, Community Center on Coleman Avenue; Precinct 4, Mitchell School; Precinct 5, Pan Am Station in Brownville; Precinct 6, Spillers' Grocery, 310 Montgomery Street; Precinct 7, Livestock Auction Barn on Highway 80; Precinct 8, Green Gables courts; Precinct 9, Claborn Street, Fire Station; Precinct 10, Sawyer's Shop, White's Ferry Road; Precinct 11, Highland School; Precinct 12, Ball's Grocery

Mother Thinks Salk Vaccine Aided Her Son

SHREVEPORT July 24 —UP— The mother of an eight-year-old boy who took the Salk polio test vaccine shots and was stricken with slightly paralytic polio said today she believed the shots kept him from becoming more severely stricken.

Mrs. E. R. Price said her son, Charles Price, had always been susceptible to diseases, having had pneumonia eight times.

She said "I am convinced his participation in the tests this spring lessened the effect on him. It is only slightly paralytic and may have been much more severe had it not been for the preventive effect of the Salk vaccine."

Mrs. Price said she had received numerous queries from worried mothers of other children who took the tests.

Piece Of Bone Found By Trooper Saves Boy's Leg

SHREVEPORT July 24—UP—An eight-year-old boy walked with only a slight limp today but only last October doctors considered amputating his leg, after it was crushed in an accident between his bicycle and a car.

What changed their mind in the case of Jacob Otis Pinchera was a state trooper, investigating the accident. The trooper saw a piece of bone in the ditch at the scene and rushed it to the hospital.

Doctors examined it, sterilized it and pushed it back through a gaping three-by-six inch gash in his leg.

At latest X-rays a month ago, Dr. J. C. Willis, who performed the re-splicing, said the splinter had grown into perfect union with the main bone.

The entire case was made public yesterday when the youth's parents—his father is blind—filed a $60,915 damage suit in district court against the car driver, Ernest Zechiedrich.

Police recalled the youth was riding his bicycle last Oct. 1 when it collided with Zechiedrich's car.

The youth, unconscious, was rushed to Dr. Willis' clinic. His leg was badly crushed and Dr. Willis recalled "I was afraid I would have to amputate, but then the bone came."

In a letter filed in court along with the suit, Dr. Thomas E. Strain Jr., wrote that "Dr. Willis did an almost unbelievable job of repairing the leg."

Only recently the cast was removed from Jacob's leg. Three weeks ago he threw away his crutches. Dr. Willis said the leg was normal length, and that the limp would leave shortly.

Safety Council To Meet Monday

The Ouachita Parish Safety council will hold its regular meeting Monday night at the United Gas Building on Louisville avenue, Garland Shell, president, has announced. The meeting will begin promptly at 7:30 p.m.

Principal items of business, Shell announced, were the announcements of various committee chairmen, whom, the president said, have accepted and will be made public at that time. In addition, several other items of business will be transacted by the group.

All members and persons interested in becoming members are urged to attend the meeting, which will last only one hour.

Asphalt, the material commonly used in road surfacing soon may be widely used to hold down loose soil on freshly graded lawns or newly ploughed fields until grasses or crops become established to prevent erosion.

Reverend William Graham— A Reappraisal

Many months ago, a young, slender American evangelist left his native shores bound for England and points further East. Called by so many unwitting and unknowing souls as "hysterical" and an "arm waving firebreather," his trip was written off as folly by many of his fellow Americans.

In England, the situation was worse. The usually staid, conservative British people did not "go for" evangelism. The British press was openly hostile.

Dr. William Graham, known affectionately as "Billy" by many of his admirers, proved that he was more than a match for his opponents and the unbelievers. The truth concerning the trip was simple. The Anglican leaders were fearful that the British people had forgotten religion. They correctly assumed that the basis for a successful struggle for the minds of men is a rejuvenated Christian civilization. So, they called on Dr. Graham and some of the members of his team to come to England and make a preparatory survey.

Dr. Graham would probably have gone without the survey, but in any case, he and his associates saw the great need for revival in the British Isles and decided on an extended tour.

It would first be wise to state that Dr. Graham is no "arm waver" and he is no proponent of hysteria. He is an extremely well educated man holding a Doctorate of Philosophy. His sermons heard each week on the "Hour of Decision" are not only excellently balanced, they are attuned to the times and present world conditions.

Dr. Graham's thesis is extremely simple. He preaches that humans are not capable of settling their own affairs and that as such, the affairs will be turned over to a Higher Hand at sometime in the future.

How successful was Dr. Graham's tour of England and the Continent? Thousands upon thousands accepted Christ at the gigantic Harringay Arena and in other parts of the Isles. The First Sea Lord accepted Christ, peers of the realm as well as laborers, serving maids, truck drivers and bankers went up to Dr. Graham begging forgiveness for their sins and accepting Christ as their personal Savior.

The crusade was a spontaneous success. Why was it a success? There are many probable reasons. The British people, perhaps even more than the Americans, are fearful that the Biblical prophesy of the destruction of the Earth by fire might actually take place first in England. They are seriously worried about the Hydrogen weapon. Thus, it is possible that they feel closer to God than almost any nation.

The response given the crusade is a sign of hope. Perhaps the world is indeed returning to religion. Some see in the Graham success, a change for the better. But, how did he succeed in a nation usually noted for its staid and conservative mores?

Dr. Graham taught four things. The first was the inspiration and the authority of the Holy Bible. The second was the special creation of Man, his Fall, his Original Sin.

In the third place, he preached the Virgin Birth of Christ; His absolute Deity; His Atonement as the absolute, sole and only means of Redemption from man's individual wickedness; the physical resurrection of Christ, and belief in the resurrection of all human beings.

Last, he preached on the authority of the prophecies of the Bible and super-natural design of history, past, present and future; and on the Second Advent in the form of a personal return of Christ which he said was in effect, directly related to the present world crisis.

This form of preaching was given up by many quarters of the Christian Church long ago as being "old fashioned and too conservative." Yet, it has had astounding success. Perhaps the answer lies in exactly what Dr. Graham preaches, that the Word of God, the Holy Bible is stronger than any weapon presently forced.

The Greater London Crusade has proved beyond a shadow of a doubt that preaching the Bible in a form once considered "dead" has awakened a nation of people to their responsibilities. The Church of England is now busy estimating this success and drafting plans along the lines as suggested by Dr. Graham. If the words of Dr. Graham are taken to heart, it can be realized that man alone is absolutely incapable of settling his own problems.

This is followed by the idea as The Morning World has often stated, that these problems will be at a time in the not too distant future, settled by the Word of God. Dr. Graham is certain of the Human Failure and upon that thesis, he is certain of Divine Intervention and thus, the salvation of the Earth.

The Greater London Crusade is combined with startling reports coming from behind the Iron Curtain. The Morning World's European information sources have reported that several important aspects have arisen to point in the direction of disintegration of the leadership of the Bolsheviks. Several important factors are involved.

The formation of "NTS" (National 'no Trudovoi Soyuz or the National Alliance of Russian Solidarity) as an effective anti-Communist organization based on Christian lines is most astounding. NTS has a three fold plan which will end in the destruction of the Russian Communist conspiracy IF SUCH IS EFFECTIVELY BACKED BY THE WEST.

Dr. Graham's preachings, and the success of those might be interpreted in some quarters as a rejuvenation and an exhilaration of the West and the NTS influence could mean a degeneration in the East.

Dr. Graham is an astounding man. Above all, he is a sincere and a profoundly good man who preaches straight from the Word without a quail and certainly without apology. He is not a "new thinker" realizing that the Bible and its Word is never ending, never changing. Dr. Graham, like so many others, believes that the Power of God is greater than anything. His words are indeed a great inspiration in these desperate and dangerous times.

This newspaper has stated time and time again that the success or failure of the Free World depends clearly on the return to the mores and the folkways of some years ago. In short, it agrees with Dr. Graham in the analysis that Christ is indeed the Savior and on the direct acceptance, of Jesus depends the salvation of the free world.

A marvelous person is the kind Baptist Preacher from North Carolina who teaches that the Word of the Lord is still the most powerful weapon against tyranny ever forged.

More power to Reverend William Graham and may his voice and his teachings soon come to all Free Men wherever they may be.

A Beastly Thing To Do

It is said that hot summer weather affects different people in many ways. That much can be said for any climate. Unfortunately, it apparently brings forth the beast in some people.

A prominent young physician of the Twin Cities owns a home near Bayou DeSiard. In fact, it is almost on the Bayou. The Doctor is fond of animals as are many people. He was the proud possessor of a large but very gentle bulldog. The dog never hurt anyone. Yet, this week, someone took it upon themselves to club the dog's head in and throw him in the bayou.

Such great and overpowering courage—

Quite like the person who casts terrible aspersions about people in public life without affixing their signatures to the statement. Such courage as is exhibited by some members of the human race.

In this community, there lurks a person whose mind is hardly above that stage commonly referred to as the "age of the Neanderthal."

Cowards all, the dog killers lurk the byways of every city in the nation, attacking with great stealth and bringing sorrow to many otherwise happy homes. In any case, it was a beastly thing to do.

Brave person, show your face.

What About Adams And Hensel?

Now that Roy Cohn, a staunch anti-Communist, has resigned his post on the McCarthy subcommittee due to the abject surrender by Senator Potter to the demands of the Democrat members of the Committee, the smears of the Communist inspired propaganda machine and countless other curious influences, it is time to see whether or not the administration will fire Truman holdovers Struve Hensel (whose wartime dealings with the Navy raised some eyebrows) and Army Counsel Adams.

It is unfortunate that Roy Cohn, an expert Marxist hunter, was chased out of his position. As the Wisconsin Senator McCarthy, said, "It's a great day for the Communists."

A news report flashed into Monroe on Thursday seemed to indicate that indeed, Adams was on his way out. Why at this late date has Adams not been fired? Why was it necessary to use a Truman holdover in the Pentagon inquisition of Senator McCarthy? The firing of Adams should have been an immediate occurrence upon the assumption to office of the President and his new administration.

The answers to the questions are tragically simple. The "Advance" inside the GOP is in control of the policies and the patronage of the party. It is believed that as such, undue influence has been exerted by the White House to "get rid" of Roy Cohn. What about Charles Potter, the Michigan Senator on the McCarthy subcommittee? Is he the "Advance" member of the Committee? It was Potter, you will remember, who started the ball rolling in the first place after the Alsops and Senator Symington had "unearthed" facts from the files in the Pentagon.

After the Republican controlled Pentagon had distributed the files to the Democrat members of the Committee and to the Alsops, it was Potter who demanded the investigation. At the close of the hearings, even before any "verdict" had been reached by the Committee as a whole, it was Potter who demanded that both sides fire their seconds in command.

It was Potter who stated in effect that both sides are guilty although the Army never proved a thing on McCarthy or his associates while McCarthy proved beyond a shadow of a doubt that the case was "rigged" by the leftists of both parties and was engineered by Stuart Symington, the Missouri Trumanocrat who refused, even in the face of shame, to resign his post on the Committee.

The American people have a right to receive an explanation from the White House concerning the movements of the "Advance" which in some curious manner, seems always to keep in close contact with the leftists of the Democrat party. These facts must come to light so that the people can get a clear picture of that which faces them today.

Some congressmen and Senators of both parties have written this newspaper that the situation is far more dangerous in the National Capitol today than it was under Truman. The explanation seems to be that the Congress while Truman was in office, was controlled by a strong coalition of Southern Democrats and Conservative Republicans. These people point out that such is no longer the case. They show that the Congress is controlled by Eastern minded Republicans and like Democrats.

An "Eastern minded Republican" apparently refers to one who leans to the left on a domestic angle and to the internationalist sides as regards their foreign policies.

The Socialists and even some outright pro-Communists still hold sway in the government in that to be a Socialist is not regarded as a criminal offense even though that Socialist hopes for "sweeping change" even as does his Communist counterpart. It is a fact, proven beyond a shadow of any doubt, that the Socialists and the Communists align themselves together as Marxists "when the chips are down."

The Advance, sponsored by the Americans For Democratic Action, thus holds forth over the Republican party, patronage, power, Treasury and all other allied parts of the organization.

Adams should go. Struve Hensel should go. Every Truman holdover should go. But—they will not go because the "Advance" doesn't want them to go. The aspect still not understood by the American people is this: The Marxists and their akin cohorts do not regard the party lines as such. To them, there is only one job and that is, the attainment of complete success of the Marxian revolution. To that end, they work. In the Republican party—the "Advance" and in the Democrat party, the ADA. Both are the same, there is no difference.

Besides Adams and Hensel—there should be others following. Only in that manner can the people be assured that the "Advance" will be cleared out of the government.

What's Wrong With Baseball Here?

Monroe, La.

Editor, Morning World: Well, in the first place there is too much of it. Why are people expected to pay to see a ball game when every vacant lot and school ground in Monroe has a free game. Not as good as organized baseball but it stands to reason that the kids and moms of the kids will go to see their kids play and that cuts down on the box office take at the Legion park. Then why in the name of common sense can't the sponsors of the small fry have their games on nights when the Sports are not here. Almost every night when the Sports are here the little park is all lit up and two ball games are in progress right on top of each other and when the little leagues are through they have had all they want for the night or they come over to the Sports park and get in for half price or for nothing. It seems to me there is bad timing or mismanagement somewhere or a plot to hurt our Cotton States club.

And another thing that is really making a lot of us who ride the bus fighting mad is that a privileged few are permitted to park in the middle of the road in front of the ticket box and it is as dangerous as can be to try to get to the bus or across the road to where your car is parked. A doctor, a police car and the fire department should be allowed to park back of the white bleachers but other cars should be forced to park in the parking lot.

One way to help would be to put meters on all places where they play ball and let the sponsors pay for all electricity. That would help the city and perhaps the low voltage that we in the south part of Monroe are forced to put up with. I pay my way into the park, my fare on the bus etc., but if some one would look into these things the attendance at Sports games would increase.

America's Four Horsemen

Bastrop, La.

Editor, Morning World: Again I have occasion to praise your fine editorial in the Sunday 18th edition of the Morning World. I think that it bespeaks the general consensus of opinion throughout the state. It is a well known fact that Senator Ellender is about as well educated, academically, technically, and experimentally as any man to be found in Louisiana. He is as well educated in French and Latin as he is in English. He can go anywhere in western Europe, or in the western hemisphere, and talk fluently to those people. In the past, when it became necessary to send a representative to any of those parts of the world, it has always devolved upon Senator Ellender. We all must agree that Mr. Ellender is by leagues the best man in the race for U. S. Senator. I predict that he will be reelected by a clear majority July 27th.

Your reprint of the Manchester New Hampshire Union Leader's Editorial is inspiring to me. It is beginning to appear that true Americanism is coming to life again. For several years, I have been despondent over the outlook for the future of our country, but your fine editorial, and reprint of other paper editorials inspires a hope that I may again see my country salvaged from the cess pool of corruption, the United Nations, and brought forth a clean, magnificent free country.

What sears my conscience most is the remembrance of how our forefathers marched through the bitter cold, half clad, some barefooted, and leaving tracks of blood upon the frozen ground, fought, bled and died upon the battle fields to deliver a gold-given heritage to their posterity, sanctified with their own blood; and now after a hundred and sixty five years of turmoil and strife, the American people have built our country up and made it the most outstanding nation in the world. Then our forthright enemies by intrigue, to subvert every part and particle of our forthrightness and bring us under the iron heel of world dictatorship is more than I can endure.

Azzin I impel you that it is imperative for forthright, leading newspaper men like yourself to hold a convention and organize a Republican - Democrat party and give the people a chance to help redeem our country from the abyss of destruction at the hands of consolidated corruption. And by no means, please don't cease to enlarge upon the forthrightness of four of America's greatest statesmen, Senators, Bricker, Johnson, Knowland and McCarthy.

What's Happened?

Mitchell, Indiana.

Editor, Morning World: What's Happened to Louisiana's Southern Hospitality?

Being a West Monroe girl myself, my family and I were home for vacation over the 4th of July for as our custom we went to Bernstein Park for dinner, but much to my surprise a few days before the 4th, your paper published a statement that all the tables and houses were reserved. Since when did Louisiana start this? It used to be first-come-first-serve, so to speak. And as the result we ate our dinner on the ground amid the ants and bugs. Need I say, had we known this we would have postponed our vacation until a time we could have been sure of having a table and enjoying the park as we have always done.

Our park in Indiana extends an invitation to one and all and especially to out-of-town people. My husband's home is here in Indiana and I have always been proud to boast of our Southern customs. But was my face red when he bragged to my people about Indiana's Park and the way it was managed.

Editor, Morning World:

The growing volume of litter along America's streets and highways, in its parks and on its beaches, concerns everyone who takes pride in the appearance of his community. What was a minor nuisance only a few years ago has become a major problem. Here and there individual citizens or groups have undertaken to combat the litter problem locally. In some area, notably California, this activity has assumed state-wide proportions. A few national organizations have recognized the seriousness of the situation and have urged that anti-litter activities be incorporated in the action programs of their member groups at state and local levels. The public interest in these independent efforts indicates a widespread desire for an anti-litter plan that can be applied to the entire nation.

It is most encouraging, therefore, to find that a group of the nation's foremost industrial leaders not only share our concern but have taken an aggressive step toward the elimination of litter from the American scene.

I refer to the recent organization announcement of Keep America Beautiful, Inc., a non-profit corporation established for the express purpose of combating litter. For the benefit of those of your readers who may not know of this new organization, I would like to try to explain that it represents a joint effort by industry and citizen groups to cope with the litter problem on a national basis.

Industry is contributing generously, not only in financial support but from its technological resources and ingenuity, to insure success of the program. More than 30 national organizations, including my own, have accepted the responsibility of representation on an Advisory Council to work with the industrial leaders who constitute the directorate of Keep America Beautiful, Inc. They and we recognize the necessity for the widest possible public knowledge and understanding of the aims and plans of our new organization. We frankly want to attract to our ranks an increasing number of those who take pride in their homes and their communities, and who, because of that pride, will want to keep America Beautiful.

City Court Judge

West Monroe, La.

Editor, Morning World: Do we the people of West Monroe and ward five realize the importance of our city judge? West Monroe is no longer a little town by four towns, and the time has passed when the only qualification necessary for city judge is a diploma from a law school.

Let us go into this a little further, and consider as every voter should individual qualifications. In the first place the city judge has charge of civil court cases involving money claims up to $300.00 in all of ward five - suits for amounts less than $300.00 are filed without the necessity of a lawyer. He also has charge of all violations of city or state laws which do not carry a penitentiary term. Some violations of state law may be punished in city court by up to two years in jail, or a fine of $1,000.00 or both.

The city court also has jurisdiction of juvenile cases with authority to commit juveniles to state institutions, such as L. T. I. Of course, juvenile cases are tried in a closed court, and are not made public. In cases where it is necessary he also has the authority to take a child from the custody of his parents, and place him elsewhere.

In the second place the city judge should have experience. Does an engineer expect to be given a crack train before he has had years of experience on a lesser run? Is a man made principal of a large school two years after he graduates from college, and has spent those two years teaching in a small school? Is the city judge of West Monroe and ward five less important than these? Think this over carefully.

In the third place any judge should enforce the law, rather than make it. In his announcement Mr. Jones said, "I believe that a judge, above all, should be more than one who simply reads the law, and applies it coldly to those who come before him for justice. Rather, a judge should interpret the law in the light of both its legal and humanitarian aspect, always remembering that individual circumstances make no two cases exactly alike."

What are these individual circumstances? Since his election Judge Heard has imposed fines of $300.00 or ninety days in jail in every case of first offense drunken driving. If Mr. Jones is inclined to fix such penalties according to "individual circumstances," would the law be enforced as fairly, or as well? For instance; two men get arrested for drunken driving, one man is fined according to the law, the other gets off scot-free because of "individual circumstances." Why?

What "individual circumstances" can make running a red traffic light different? I believe that all men should have equal justice under the law, without regard to "individual circumstances."

The city court as now conducted is a protection to the people of our entire community against violation of the law. If we should have a court which is lax about enforcing the law, we would soon notice the difference in our city in law violations such as drunken driving, speeding, brawls, public drunkenness, etcetera.

Ellender Band Wagon

Monroe, La.

Editor, Morning World:

I noticed in your paper of July 20, where you stated that three more newspapers had endorsed Senator Ellender which made five daily newspapers to make this endorsement. These papers were the Shreveport Times, Monroe News-Star and Morning World, which as you well know are all owned by the Ewing interest, a very large corporation. The two newspapers who had previously endorsed Senator Ellender are the Times - Picayune and New Orleans State which are also owned by one large corporation. Were you trying to intimate to the public generally that Senator Ellender had a band wagon?

Let The Negroes Educate Their Own Children

Buston, La.

Editor, Morning World:

The state of Mississippi is planning for private schools if the U. S. Supreme Court leaves them no alternative. They intend to turn away from this Socialistic system of public schools, in which everybody believes they are getting something for nothing, and each and every one put this same money in private schools where they can educate their children without mortgaging them. This is the surest way to expect an equity of justice in Louisiana if the Supreme Court overrules Louisiana's recent legislation.

This would force the Negroes to educate their own children and as he only pays three per cent of these school funds the south would still have to help him. The south wants to give the colored people fifty per cent of these benefits—equal facilities—but this didn't suit those nine old men. Worst of all, equal facilities didn't suit Russia who had planned that breaking down segregation here in the south would furnish her a revolution.

Russia still believes there will be inter-racial warfare here. Her stages, northern agitators and combatants, are trying with all their might to mingle the races in the south whether the colored people want it or not. Please note that these agitators are miscegenates and if they had the power (the U. S. Supreme Court is aiding them) there wouldn't be a white man on earth; all would be miscegenates.

The people of today are responsible for what their offspring will be in the future. Do you want your offspring to remain white or stay as God made you? Mingle the races while these children are small and give them cause to drop segregation in high gear. Take a look at our South American neighbor, Brazil. It is 85 per cent mongrelized. Segregation is a law of God Almighty and not those nine politicians in Washington.

THOMAS A. HILTON

Churchill, Knowland and Joe McCarthy

West Monroe, La.

Editor, Morning World:

It has not been so long ago since the president said in a speech that we had gained the initiative in the cold war. A few days later Dulles said it the Communists committed further acts of aggression we would retaliate by massive bombing in places of our choosing. This scared Winston Churchill, and he promptly punctured the idea. We heard no more about it on Churchill's last trip over here. He said he came from the land of his Father to the land of his Mother, but let us not think for a minute he is or ever has been for anything but Britain and the issue of seating Red China in the U. N.

When he arrived back in London and heard what Senator Knowland had said about seating Red China in the U. N., he was so shocked, I think the thing that really shocked him was the fact that at last an American had the nerve to stand up for America and also the fact that the American people behind Senator Knowland, New Churchill and Attlee have had a disagreement and Churchill defended the U. S., but I have the feeling that he did this to make amends in some degree for his previous mistake. I don't think it changed his mind about seating Red China in the U. N.

It appears since Joe McCarthy was out on vacation that the army has been hard at work getting Communists out of the army. They have had some success it seems. It would seem to look as if they were not too sure that Senator Potter and the Democrats on the investigating committee could hold Joe down and that if they did fail, the army would not be caught napping a second time.

Now Mr. Wilson tells us that the army has no way of investigating the defense plants. It appears Joe will get the work done without having to do it himself, but such political skull duggery on the part of some Democrats and Republicans at a time like this won't get them any votes and besides these hearings going on at a time when instead of putting every kind of roadblock in the way, Mr. Stevens and Mr. Adams should have cooperated.

It does not make sense to permit a general that did cooperate with the committee to be relieved of his command. Their only excuse was the tactics Joe used. I never heard a single mention of the tactics the Communist used. I think we now can understand what was cooking.

Time For A Change

Monroe, La.

Editor, Morning World:

I have been reading in the papers about the Insurance Commission and the power it has delegated to it by the State Legislature. The power to set rates, to change them whenever the commission thinks that it is necessary, to force a municipality to install more and newer fire fighting equipment, whenever they wish by holding over their heads the threat of higher rates. These are wonderful powers if handled right and we assume that they are.

On the other hand, there are problems that are very discouraging to the policy holder if he is ever called upon to make use of his policy. After talking to about one hundred persons that have policies and about 10 per cent of them have had to file a claim at one time or another, I find the story to be about the same.

They are called on and won over by the insurance agent who in his own words is about the best friend that you could possibly have. He will give you one hundred per cent protection and the companies that he represents are only the best and he would not carry you unless he considered you a No. 1 risk. They will come to your aid immediately, if need be and will settle your claims at once. He then collects your payment for your policy in advance and leaves, with you feeling that you are completely covered and that you need have no fear at all, especially after reading their advertisements, in which they rate cases on which they settled from thirty-six to seventy-two hours, leading one to believe that all settlements are made promptly and that the companies are only too glad to settle an honest claim.

Here is where the story changes. You have a loss, you call your agent, he hardly remembers if you ever had a policy, but he will look it up for you. You never see him again, but a couple of days later working for an adjustment bureau, which is owned by the insurance companies, comes to see you about your claim. He says to make you prove that you really bought something, for which you paid in advance and for which you have a receipt. Something that the agent appraised and set the amount to be covered and the amount of the premium to be paid.

Time slips by, you get worried, wondering if your agent is going to deliver to you that for which you have paid. You call your agent, he tells you that he will see about it, you never see him, but the bureau calls to tell you that they are working on the claim, but after two months of investigation they find that you did not have a photograph copy made of the policy, and the agent appraised and set the amount of insurance on. Time marches on and the adjuster wants to know if it was a cow and calf that you had the policy on if you would be willing to settle for the calf as the cow was getting old anyway. You refuse and time goes on. You make threats, costly to both sides, the gentleman from the bureau calls on you, having worn you down, cost you money and you agree to take a big loss due to the fact that you are not able to continue to try to collect the claim any longer. The adjuster is happy and your very friendly agent is back again with an iron clad policy from a better company and you will assure you that this situation could not possibly happen again.

Now, I believe, it is about time this commission does something to help the policy holder, such as setting time limits on settling claims. Make the agent appraise the property and seeing that the policy holder gets full settlement on the agent's appraisal or agent be held guilty of selling something that was not there. I think these two things would not only help the policy holder but would also keep better relations between policy holder and agent.

Thoughts On Immigration
Sacramento, Calif.

Editor, Morning World:
Conquest of the air began long ago. We think of the airplane as up-to-the-minute. We forget that early attempt of de Crozier in 1783. This reminds us that aeroplane manufacture, air transport arrived only after one, even two centuries of research. In fact, Leonardo da Vinci, born 1452, really gave mankind the concept that some day humans would fly like birds.

Researchists in aviation also and other fields must be of high I. Q. Unfortunately they tend to race-advance through excessive birth control. Meantime, those of lower intelligence only too often breed like rabbits. One thing Americans can do is to watch immigration control as to arrivals from high birthrate countries, such as the Balkans.

Motoring there, the writer found the tariff for chauffeurs was 40 cents daily, 10 cents daily additional secured one speaking 15 languages. Here is an index as to Balkan living standards. It is well known that, in that corner of Europe, families of 10 to 18 children are not rare. It is overpopulation that makes the Balkans "Europe's powderkeg." The reward of education was a daily wage increase equal one price of an ice cream cone. With that much effort worth 10 cents, can one marvel at a willingness to bribe smugglers to gain admission to a land where wages are ten times theirs?

If we really desire scientific reduction of poverty, should we not watch injection into U. S. A. of immigrants inured to near coolies wages? Will not our old Americans soon be outbred by such?

gellistic work for the National Christian council of Japan, and has been responsible for the turning to Christianity of hundreds of thousands of his countrymen.

In his speaking tour in 1950, he visited 130 cities and spoke at mass meetings, churches, colleges and universities, as well as university seminars, camp conferences and numerous other places where he has been greeted with tremendous applause. His evangelistic work has been carried out in Europe, Australia, Hawaii and Latin America.

It is a wonderful opportunity for Northeast Louisiana to hear one of the great men of the entire world.

Mrs. Katie Mae Zoll, principal of a parish school at Selman field, was initiated into Phi Lambda Pi sorority on the Louisiana State university campus recently.

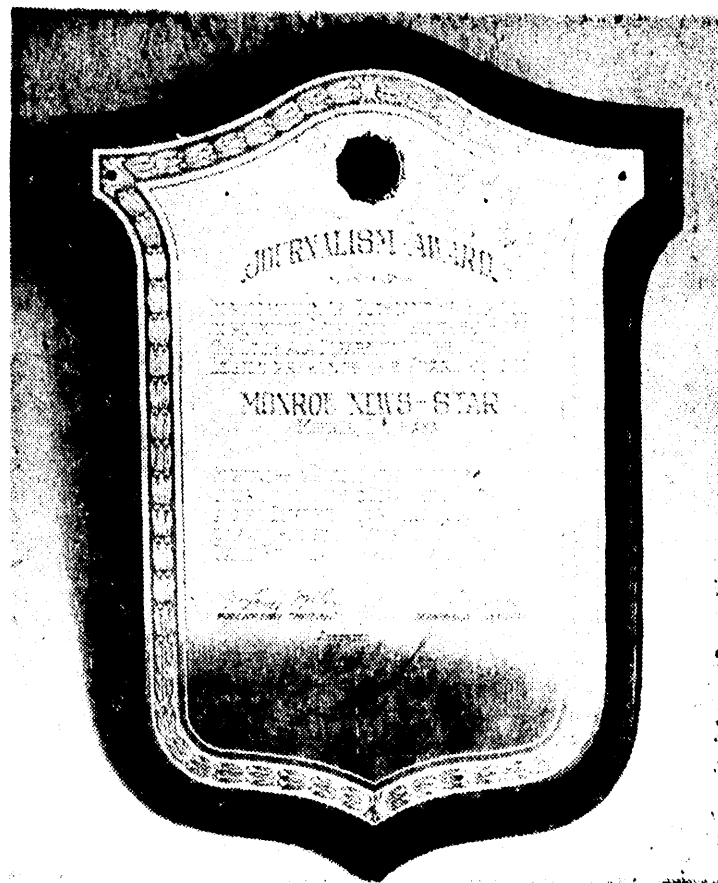

Nineteen women were initiated and two were pledged to Phi Lambda Pi, honorary organization for married women attending L. S. U. The group was founded in 1935 and members must maintain "B" scholastic average.

The school board of Caldwell parish went all out Friday afternoon when they held open house to show off their fine new office building. It presents the last word in appointments, and while not the largest in the state it is, we believe, the finest small building of its kind.

Many from this and adjacent parishes attended the opening. Among those so participating were: Shelby M. Jackson, state superintendent, Ralph Teague, state high school supervisor; N. B. (Rad) Hackett, field representative for L. E. A. The Caldwell parish school administration officials are: T. L. Johnston, superintendent; K. R. Russell, supervisor; Mrs. Lucile Woodbridge, visiting teacher; Ernest Cottenham, bookkeeper; Miss Lola Caldwell, home demonstration agent.

The building is of a cream colored brick with foyer and office for each officer and a board room that is a work of art and beauty. Charming young ladies in flowing gowns acted as escorts.

place of business and removed three cans of dog food from a shelf. Taking it to the cashier he asked: "This is new kind of dog food for me to buy. Do you think it is good?" he asked.

"Yes sir, it is fine I am sure. Why I gave it to my dog and he ate it for some days and then disappeared. I never saw him again after that!"

A woman residing off Loop road complained to Jes' Ramblin': "I had the finest corn in Monroe until the ants got to it; it was so dry and they so hungry. They have now eaten it all up and now they are trying to eat me up too!"

A Monroe resident possesses a cat, a fairly large dog, we might call him "Junior," and a still larger dog, might be "Senior." When feeding time comes, the cat gets into line first, then the Junior dog, and last is the Senior dog. Until each in priority has had a dinner, the others in line await their proper turns, and there is complete harmony in the animal world.

Ellender

Gatlin has never held political office.

In the third district race, Rep. Edwin E. Willis of St. Martinville, seeking a fourth two-year term, is opposed by former state Sen. Dudley J. LeBlanc of Abbeville.

LeBlanc, colorful Cajun manufacturer and original promoter of Hadoac, has been in and out of politics since 1924. He lost to Willis in 1952 in a close race.

Rep. Overton Brooks of Shreveport, seeking his 10th term in the House, is opposed in the Fourth District by a 37-year-old Shreveport housewife, Mrs. H. H. Thompson.

Rep. T. A. Thompson of Ville Platte has two foes in his bid for second term from the Seventh District. They are John Clark, Eunice lumberman, and Sam Tarleton, the latter a Lake Charles newspaperman. Clark was defeated by Thompson in 1952.

In the Eighth District, Rep. George Long of Pineville, 70-year-old brother of the late Sen. Long, is opposed by D. M. Riddle, lumber dealer and former mayor of Marksville. Long defeated Riddle and one other foe in 1952, when he was first elected to the House.

Also to be nominated are a Supreme Court justice from the Sixth District, a Court of Appeals judge from the First Circuit, and a Public Service Commission member from the Third District.

In the Sixth District Supreme Court race, covering 12 south central parishes, four candidates are entered to fill a vacant seat. They are Adolph Menet Jr., Numa F. Montet, James D. Simon and Frank W. Summers.

Three candidates are seeking the vacant First Circuit Court of Appeals seat. They are William C. Boone, A. B. Cavanaugh and Albert Tate Jr. The circuit covers 14 southwest parishes.

The race for public service commissioner has turned into a partial battle between supporters of Gov. Robert Kennon and former Gov. Earl Long.

Kennon is backing the incumbent, Harvey Broyles, while Long and his supporters are on the stump speaking for candidate John J. McKeithen. L. S. Hooper is also entered in the Third District race.

Under a new law approved by the 1954 Legislature, all election places open at 6 a.m. and close at 8 p.m. Other new election laws require that:

1. Voting machines remain sealed until the fourth day after the election instead of the 10th day, and the clerk of court immediately record the total vote for each candidate as the machines are unsealed.
2. Candidates in runoff elections may retain the same ballot number they had in the first primary.
3. Election results are to be posted in the voting precinct.
4. Use of "military" ballots be abandoned, and all absentee ballots be marked as "absentee" ballots.
5. Training of election commissioners be complete four days prior to election instead of seven, and commissioners show instruction certificates before being allowed to serve.

Five Louisiana parishes used voting machines before the 1952 Legislature made their use statewide and four more have used them in city and parish elections since then.

senator, Chennault said he respected Ellender as "a fine Christian man," but scored him for following what he termed the "policy which sold all of China and possibly all of Asia to the Communists." While there has been no blemish on the honesty of the present senator, General Chennault emphasized, he has shown that he is not the "man for the job in these trying times."

"I am not so sure that Senator Ellender's trips around the world are worthwhile," he said, then pointed out his reasons for making the statement. While on a tour of the world several years ago, the general told of Ellender, he refused to come to Formosa, although he had been invited personally and offered transportation should he decide not to use U. S. Air Force planes.

When the senator said he could not make the trip to the Nationalist Chinese stronghold because of the size of the planes, General Chennault said, he offered to have one of his own planes put at his disposal. However, each time any statement was made, the senator would be taken aside by State department officials and he, Ellender, would later refuse. While making the same trip, Senator Ferguson took time out and visited the Formosan island, Chennault said.

Company president Joe S. Wong said he decided to sign a new contract last night, leaving provisions requiring an all-union member shop in the contract.

Sunlight had at first written in a clause barring the union from forcing members to join up, an open shop, as required by the recent act of the Legislature.

However, Laundry Workers International Local 44 had contended that the right-to-work law does not take effect until next Wednesday and any contract requiring a union shop signed before that time would not be against the law.

To The Voters

I would like to take this opportunity to discuss with you my candidacy for reelection as a member of the Ouachita Parish School Board.

Perhaps the closest thing to our hearts next to God is our children. Our schools play a major part in the moulding of our children's lives and character. Therefore your school board plays a very important part in each family's life year after year. It is of utmost importance to you that the very best men be elected to your school board, because after all, your school board hires the teaching personnel and formulates the school policies for all children under its jurisdiction, which profoundly affects your lives.

I am completing my 6th year as one of your school board members. During this time I have acquired a vast knowledge of school administration, school law and school policies and by virtue of this knowledge I could serve you even better for the next six years. Nothing takes the place of actual experience in any endeavor.

The last 5 years has seen the greatest school expansion program carried out by your school board that has ever occurred in this parish. I am very happy to have had the opportunity to help plan and carry out this expansion of our schools. The results have been most gratifying to all of us, particularly here in Ward 5. The improvements made in Ward 5 are as follows: New elementary schools were constructed at Highland, Drew, Lenwil and Claiborne; the new West Monroe High School was constructed. Major improvements and new cafeterias were constructed at Crosley, Mitchell, Ransom, Millsaps and Tim Tippit. Also a new elementary and high school was constructed for the Negro children.

If you cast your vote for me for member of the Ouachita Parish School Board on Tuesday, July 27, you will have voted for the best qualified candidate, because I am the only candidate in Ward 5 school board election that is qualified through experience. I humbly solicit your vote for reelection to the Ouachita Parish School Board.

Unrelenting Sun Burns Drouth Deeper Into U. S.

By ROBERT H. JOHNSON JR., Associated Press Staff Writer

The unrelenting sun is burning the brand of drouth deeper into the United States.

There is drouth of some kind, mild to terrible, from the Georgia coast to the Wyoming mountains and from Canada to Mexico.

In some states where last spring there was hope of a fruitful summer, farmers now say it will be the worst year since the mid 30s.

Texas, New Mexico and Colorado—states that received federal disaster relief last summer—have been declared in line for it again. Wyoming is a new member of this unhappy company. Oklahoma, a charter member of the 1953 drouth disaster club, is seeking reinstatement. Missouri and Georgia have applied for admission. Kansas is on the ragged edge of disaster.

And long days of dry heat have burned into the grain fields of the Dakotas, the farms of Indiana and Iowa, the tobacco plantations of the Carolinas.

Only six weeks ago there was a lot of talk that the drouth might be on the way out. Heavy spring rains raised good stands of grass and crops in West Texas areas that had been dry four years. In Oklahoma and Missouri, experts declared the drouth broken. There were cheerful reports from Nebraska and Kansas.

But hardly any rain has fallen since then—and most of it has been in the wrong places.

President Eisenhower has ordered an emergency feed program much like the one that was set up last summer so that ranchers could buy hard-to-get livestock feed at cut-rate prices. So far, 78 counties—23 in Texas, 23 in Colorado, 24 in New Mexico and 8 in Wyoming—have been listed for this federal disaster help.

This summer's Texas disaster area up to now is concentrated in the south central part of the state. It's much smaller than last summer, when it took in more than 100 counties and roughly the western half of Texas. But it may be enlarged. Gov. Allan Shivers had advised all dry parts of East Texas—a section that came through last summer in pretty good shape—to apply for needed help. And State Agriculture Commissioner John White said West Texas, which was helped most by the spring rains, is slipping back fast. He said some parts of West Texas are better off than a year ago only because anything is better than zero.

Ironically, up to 22 inches of rain soaked southwest Texas the last weekend in June. But it surged away in flash floods down dry washes and sent the Rio Grande on its worst rampage in history. International Falcon Dam stopped the flood below Laredo, trapping more than two million acre feet of water for an area that didn't really need it now—the lower Rio Grande Valley, which has had enough irrigation water since the first spring rains filled Falcon reservoir.

Pounding rains like those usually aren't much help, anyway. New Mexico got some—with the usual flash floods—toward the end of last week. Experts agreed the spotted cloudbursts had little effect on the drouth. What is needed is slow, soaking, general rain.

Father, 5 Tots Burned To Death In House Blaze

NEWPORT, Ark., July 24 (AP)—Five children and their father were killed early today when fire destroyed their two-room sharecroppers' cabin on a farm at nearby Diaz, Ark. Their mother and baby brother escaped.

No cause has been discovered for the blaze that took the lives of Eddie Williams, 28; Naomi, 6; Marvin Lewis, 5; Donnell 4; Vinda Kay, 3; and Kay Faye, 1.

The blaze broke out about 3 a.m., awakening the mother, who leaped from a window and then returned to the blazing house to rescue the infant, Carlos.

Williams' body was found crumpled beside one of the children's beds. The body of one child was found huddled near a door.

The Negro family had moved into the house only recently after a similar fire destroyed their previous home. No one was hurt in the first fire.

Fluoridation To Be Discussed In Office Of Mayor

Representatives of civic clubs have been asked to meet in the mayor's office, city hall, at 10 a.m. Tuesday, when fluoridation of the city water supply will be considered. Many of the club have voted favorably and there will be representatives of these in the meeting.

Also those who are not favorable to the plan will be given an opportunity to give their views. It is understood that the cost will be $15,000 or $20,000 for the equipment that will be required.

Fluoridation is said to preserve the teeth of small children up to the age of 12 years.

In a thoroughly democratic method of proceeding, both sides of the issue will be heard in the mayor's office on Tuesday morning.

5,578 Voters Register In La Salle Parish

JENA, July 24. (Special)—The 5,578 registered voters in LaSalle Parish will vote in 27 precincts in seven wards on Tuesday, July 27, in the state Democratic primary. It has been announced by the registrar of voters, Mrs. Lettie Paul, Ward 4, embracing Jena, Whitehall, Midway and Crossroads, with seven precincts, lists the heaviest registration, totaling 2098. Ward 2, embracing Olla, Urania and Tullos in the northern part of the parish, with five precincts, is second with 1790 voters registered.

Of the 27 precincts designated in the parish, three are exclusively Negro, including ward 2, precinct 3, Olla; Ward 3, precinct 7, Trout, and ward 4, Precinct 7, Jena. Registration in the Olla Negro precinct is 99, in the Trout Negro precinct 129 and in the Jena Negro precinct 204, for a total of 432 voters registered in the three exclusively Negro precincts. There are Negroes registered in other precincts, it was pointed out, but the highest concentration of Negro voters is in the above listed precincts.

Defense Program Planned With Aid Of Local People

Nine northeast Louisiana officials helped to plan a full-scale Civil Defense program for the "average" Louisiana "city" of Pleasant Hall during the second annual Civil Defense conference in Baton Rouge July 21-23.

Area participants in the conference were as follows:

Monroe: B. B. Martin, Civil Defense district warden and Mrs. Martin; Mrs. Helen Agnew, assistant Civil Defense district director; Mrs. Eunice Forman, Civil Defense district executive secretary; Osborn Willis, health department regional sanitarian; West Monroe, Mayor J. A. Norris; Police Chief J. W. Caldwell; and Tom Hicks, Civil Defense transportation director; St. Joseph, A. M. Shelton, Jr., Tensas Parish deputy sheriff.

Clay Johnson, Monroe area field representative of state Civil Defense, was among state staff members who reviewed new concepts in Civil Defense and basic planning necessary for Civil Defense organization.

At the three-day program the delegation from Northeast Louisiana used background material on the hypothetical city to plan the Civil Defense program.

State Civil Defense Director Francis A. Woolfley and Deputy Director Reece M. Kolb, presided at the Civil Defense conference.

Arkansas' Plea For Disaster Aid Under U. S. Study

LITTLE ROCK, July 24 (AP)—The federal Civil Defense Administration is investigating Arkansas' request that this state be declared a "major disaster" area, President Eisenhower said today in a telegram to Governor Francis Cherry.

The Arkansas governor had requested only Friday that Arkansas be declared a disaster area so that farmers hard hit by an unrelenting heat wave would be eligible for federal aid funds.

The President indicated that the Civil Defense Administration is seeking additional information from the Department of Agriculture.

U. S. Expanding Plans For Spanish Air Bases

WASHINGTON, July 24 (AP)—The United States is expanding its plans for strategically located air bases in Spain.

To the four major airdromes upon which construction will start soon, additional bases are planned for the future, it was learned tonight.

One official familiar with planning said in discussing the current construction program that there would be "additional bases brought in, in course of time."

Presumably, these could include interceptor plane bases for the defense of the big fields from which long range strategic and shorter range tactical bombers can operate.

The Spanish base system was made possible under an agreement with Madrid last year. The United States appears to be placing increasing emphasis on these bases as native unrest grows in French Morocco where the Air Force started out two years ago to build five big bases. It completed four and cancelled the other project.

The Air Force estimates that the cost of the present construction program—the fields, housing, a fuel pipeline system, hangars, repair shops and other facilities—will run about 200 million dollars.

To start off, the Air Force asked for about 50 million dollars in the military public works construction portion of the budget for the fiscal year which began on July 1. Over-all direction of both the air and naval base construction is under the Navy's Bureau of Yards and Docks. With survey work completed on three of the four sites, advertisements for bids by Spanish firms for actual construction have been issued. An official said building operations would start soon.

He estimated that construction costs in Spain would be substantially lower than those for the North African bases, which at one point became a subject for congressional investigations into quality and costs.

Teacher At Northeast Writes Book

Authoring the first Louisiana geography textbook may be an honor won by W. C. Buchanan, assistant professor of social sciences at Northeast State.

Buchanan disclosed this week that three major textbook publishers have requested examination of the manuscript when it is in final form. The writer has been collecting material for the work during the past five years but he does not expect to complete the book for a few more years.

The text on Louisiana geography is especially designed to meet college requirements. Parts of it are being currently used in mimeographed form in Buchanan's classes to determine how well the material meets such requirements. As these portions are tested, various corrections, alterations and additions are made, the instructor explained.

The volume introduces natural features of the state such as soil, climate and waterways. The cultural aspects of Louisiana also are presented in similar unit form. Each is arranged so that the average reader can readily understand and recognize these features.

Maps, charts, other illustrations and historical data are being used freely in the writer's attempt to make the format as interesting as possible. "The book will not be prepared as a sensational study, nor is it designed to be simply a factual work," the author asserted. "I am convinced, however, that it will furnish interesting reading to the general public."

The format shows one of the most serious current geographic problems being fully discussed. It is the diversion of the Mississippi River via the Old River into the Atchafalaya, a factor which recently has attracted widespread attention.

Even if Buchanan's geography textbook is not published within five years, this subject will still be up to date since the nature of the problem requires a long term solution, the writer explained. Additional information will be presented as happenings concerning this situation occur.

Detention Home To Be Discussed Sun. Afternoon

U. S. District Judge Ben C. Dawkins, retired, and Frederick Ward, Jr., director of the National Parole and Probation Association, will appear on a television program in Monroe Sunday afternoon. The two will discuss the value of a possible detention home in Ouachita Parish.

L. B. Pettit, chairman of the Ouachita Parish Detention Home Citizens' Committee, which is sponsoring the program, said the discussion will begin at 2 p.m. The chairman urged all persons to hear these "two eminent persons discuss the vital issue facing the people of Ouachita parish."

Dual Elections To Be Held Tues. In La Salle Parish

JENA, July 24. (Special)—One parish race and one district contest face the voters of LaSalle Parish in an otherwise "quiet" election Tuesday, July 27 in the state Democratic primary.

Most of the "fireworks" in campaigning has been in the U. S. Senate and U. S. Representative contests, with the other state races on the quiet side.

Harris Poole, incumbent, faces opposition from Andrew Jackson in the race for the parish school board in ward 1 of the parish. Dr. T. L. Tannehill is unopposed for re-election to the parish school board from ward 2.

District-wise, in the 28th judicial district, comprising LaSalle and Caldwell parishes, Judge V. M. Mouser, incumbent, of Columbia, is opposed for re-election by Clyde C. Russell of Jena. Martin Sanders, Jr., of Olla lost out in a legal battle which was carried to the state supreme court in his effort to enter the district attorney's race against C. C. Minard of Columbia, candidate for re-election. The district committee ruled that Sanders was not eligible at the deadline for qualifying; the district court, with a special judge hearing the case, upheld the district committee; the court of appeals upheld the district court's ruling, and the state supreme court declined Sanders' legal attempts to enter the race.

Frank Ellis, candidate for the U. S. Senate, brought his speaking campaign to LaSalle Parish, but neither the incumbent, Sen. Allen J. Ellender, nor Gilbert Faulk of Monroe spoke locally.

Dr. George S. Long of Pineville, seeking re-election to the U. S. House of Representatives from the Eighth Louisiana Congressional district, and D. M. Riddle, Jr., former mayor of Marksville, his opponent, both have spoken and advertised widely in LaSalle parish. Riddle for some time served as secretary to former Rep. A. Leonard Allen. In the race for seat on the Louisiana Public Service commission from the Third Public Service district, Harvey Broyles of Natchitoches, incumbent, has visited in the parish in the interest of his bid for re-election. L. S. Hooper of Shreveport has spoken in the parish in the interest of his own candidacy and John McKeithen of Columbia in Caldwell Parish also has visited extensively in the parish, seeking election to the same post.

Ellis Raps Earl Long, Times-Pic As Bedfellows

ALEXANDRIA, La., July 24 (M)—Frank Ellis, one of two men opposing Sen. Allen Ellender in Tuesday's Democratic primary, charged here today that former Gov. Earl Long and the Times-Picayune have joined forces to seek Ellender's re-election.

"The people of Louisiana are presented with an unusual spectacle in seeing Earl Long and the Times-Picayune sleeping in the same bed," Ellis said.

The New Orleans newspaper has announced its support of Ellender. Ellis talked about the Atchafalaya flood problem and said Ellender did not take action on the problem when it was pointed out by U. S. Engineers two years ago.

"It has only been since this campaign started that Ellender has realized the danger," the Democratic National Committee from New Orleans said. "This is something Louisiana has been fighting for years. Ellender didn't find out about it until he discovered he had serious competition in this campaign."

Ellis also charged Ellender "let the state down" in its fight to regain title to the offshore oil lands and that Ellender did nothing to prevent the Federal Power Commission from seizing control of the oil and gas industry and freezing prices at the wellhead.

Other raids appeared imminent as the khaki clad guardsmen and highway patrolmen continued their control of law enforcement functions under the limited martial law proclaimed two days ago.

Adj. Gen. Walter J. Hanna, military boss of the long notorious Chattahoochee River city where racket-busting A. L. Patterson was slain five weeks ago, ordered his men to padlock all places where gambling devices were found.

The heavily-armed national guardsmen struck first early this morning at the bridge grocery on gaudy Dillingham Street where they found lottery tickets dated as late as yesterday.

Guardsmen Take Gambling Tools In Phenix City
PHENIX CITY, Ala., July 24 (M)—National Guard troops, clamping a tight grip of military rule on besieged Phenix City, struck swiftly today in a new series of gambling raids that netted virtually every kind of gaming device from recently-dated lottery tickets to slot machines.

Liquidating Bank Facing Suit By U. S. Government
SHREVEPORT July 24 (UP)—Two income tax cases, one against the old Commercial National Bank and the other against the government, and an oil suit were on file in federal court today.

The director of Internal revenue filed the suit against the old Commercial bank, charging non-payment of the bank's 1951 income tax.

The bank has been in a state of liquidation since 1933. It is known as the old Commercial National Bank of Shreveport while the presently operating bank here is the new Commercial National Bank in Shreveport.

The government asks payment of some $158,886.03.

James Russell, stockholders agent, said he would not comment on the proceedings until he had received official notification and could study the matter.

In the other case, Richard W. Norton of Shreveport charged the government overcharged him more than $21,000 on 1945 and 1946 income taxes and asked that it be returned.

Violation of the Connelly Hot Oil act was charged against the Texas Gulf Producing Co. of Delaware, which does business in South Louisiana.

The suit charges the company with interstate shipments of 7,041 barrels of contraband oil from oil wells in Vermillion parish from September through November 1951.

Tallulah Credit Association Will Meet Thursday
TALLULAH, July 24 (Special)—The annual meeting of the Tallulah Production Credit Association will be held in the Tallulah High School auditorium Thursday, July 29. Speakers for the program are Congressman Otto Passman, Dave Pearce, commissioner of agriculture, and Fred L. Hurst, of the Farm Credit Administration of New Orleans.

A feature of the session will be awarding of 26 Year Certificates to charter members who still maintain membership in the association and the junior livestock members will receive special recognition.

Three new directors will be elected to fill expiring terms and the usual financial report will be given. D. M. Kell, of Tallulah, is the secretary-treasurer of the association which serves eleven parishes in Northeast Louisiana.

Haddon Will Be Honored At Field Day

ST. JOSEPH, July 24 (Special)—C. B. Haddon, director of the northeast Louisiana experiment station for the past 25 years, who retired effective July 1, will be honored at the annual field day to be held in St. Joseph on Thursday, August 5. It has been announced.

Haddon's place has been taken by Johnny Hendrix, former Louisiana State University football star and veteran employee of the extension department of LSU, who at one time was stationed in St. Joseph on the football club. He is well and favorably known throughout this area.

Joe Milby, Concordia parish county agent of Vidalia, said that all parish farmers as well as Adams county, Miss., friends are invited to attend. Persons attending, he said, should try to arrange to arrive at the station at 8:30 a. m.

The Tensas parish farm bureau is arranging for a large trailer to drive the group over the station to view the various experiments being carried on.

Concordia parish farmers who work buckshot land will be particularly interested in experiments on a new winter grass — Harding grass, winter pasture grass. The only other permanent winter pasture grass in this area is fescue — and Harding is believed to be superior to rescue in buckshot soil because Harding grows a large stool and cattle are able to walk over it better during the wet winter months when buckshot soil is boggy. It is also more palatable to cattle than fescue.

Eastland Tells Of Role In Filibuster On Atomic Bill

NEW ALBANY, Miss., July 24 (M)—Sen. James Eastland visited the TVA area of northeast Mississippi today and described his part in the continuing filibuster against President Eisenhower's atomic energy bill.

Eastland, opposed for re-election to the U. S. Senate by Lt. Gov. Carroll Gartin, said the bill would be a giveaway of public power to private firms.

"We are going to fight the atomic energy bill around the clock until the administration withdraws its amendment to replace TVA current with private power," he declared.

Eastland spoke earlier today in Ripley and Pontotoc and was scheduled to speak later tonight at Calhoun City.

He emphasized his experience and seniority in the Senate, and asked:

"In situations like the farm bill and the TVA battle, isn't it better for your interests that you have a senator with seniority and experience?"

Meridian Defeats Twin Cities, 5-1, To Even Series

Jayne Handcuffs Sports' Batters With Five-Hitter

Righthander Roy Jayne handcuffed the Twin Cities Sports on five hits, all singles, as he pitched the Meridian Millers to a 5-1 triumph here last night to even their current series at a game apiece. The rubber game of the series is scheduled for this afternoon at 3 o'clock at Legion Memorial Stadium.

C. J. Fontana was the only Twin Cities batter to solve Jayne's offering with any success. He slammed over three hits and scored the only Sports run. Sam Chetta and Bill Halley, the latter the losing pitcher, accounted for the other two Twin Cities hits.

Ray Rogers and Ron Pittman, with two blows apiece, were Meridian's leading hitters. Only extra basers of the game were by Bob Adams and a triple by Gene Pompella.

Halley gave up nine hits, walked only one, and fanned ten. He hit two batters with pitched balls. Jayne whiffed five and walked three in a fast game despite the delay by rain.

Singles by C. J. Fontana and Sam Chetta, and a base on balls to Lennie Morrison loaded the bases for the Sports with one out in the second inning. Virgil Pelt worked Jayne for a free pass, forcing Fontana across with the first run of the game. Halley hit into a double play to retire the side.

Ron Pittman singled and scored on a double by Bob Adams to tie the score in the third frame. A single by Wendell Forbes counted Adams to put Meridian ahead. Two more Miller runs tallied in the fourth. Tommy Davis was hit by a pitched ball. "Beans" Gordanengo grounded to Flores whose throw to second was bad, leaving all hands safe. Singles by Ray Rogers and Pittman counted Davis and Gordanengo.

Gene Pompella opened the seventh inning with a triple into the right field corner. He scored on Forbes fly to left field, giving the Millers their 5-1 bulge.

Cotton States Statistician BLATHEVILLE, Ark., July 24 (Special)—Young Frank Shell, Greenville's rookie catcher who learned his baseball ABC's in and around his native Melbourne, Ark., finally landed on top of the Cotton States League batting, even though by just a slim decimal.

The Buck receiver posted an impressive .377 for the period ending Tuesday night after chasing the leaders since joining the Bucks two weeks after the season got under way.

A rollicking 7-4 plate session on July 20 put him in, climaxing a prosperous 26-12 seven-game period for a nine-point gain.

Frank Walenga, El Dorado first baseman who held the lead so long that it had become a habit with him, followed in the first part of the week that cost him two points and the coveted spot with .376. The Otter star leads in hits, 117; total bases 197; and runs batted in, 68, and is tied in home runs, 16.

Lou Lucas, ex-Hot Springs pilot now serving with the Bucks, also has .376 but in 29 games, as against 78 for Walenga.

Hugh Glaze, Greenville second baseman seeking to retain his batting championship which he earned last summer, is third among the regulars with .358. Charles Gates, Pine Bluff keystone, skidded 29 points to .354 but landed in the No. 4 position. El Dorado's El Dorado's home-house flyer, blaster three homers in two days to muscle in on Walenga's homer racket with 16. Despite the long hitting his batting average sank 11 points to .332 for fifth Steve Korfonta, Hot Springs yardman, whose career are on the hot 4-adam, too, added four points to .323, just ahead of Meridian manager Tommy Davis, who also earned four decimals to .321. Hal Martin, Greenville, has an 11-game skunk working while chasing .320. Frank Cooper, Hot Springs, is crowding him with .319, who in turn is being pushed by El Dorado's rising youngster, Bobby Scott, with .318, a gain of five. Merrill Smith, Pine Bluff, has a .314; followed by Gene Oden, a teammate, .309; Luke Tucker, El Dorado catcher, .306; and Cliff Mansfield, Pine Bluff, .301.

Hal Cottle, Meridian righthander, added nine points to .300, for his 12th victory of the season against just two defeats, for an outstanding .857 average. Name have come in succession, Young Jerry Dean, Greenville rookie from Joiner, Ark., and former Arkansas State College (Mon) star, has the same percentage with .641. Two other members of the Buck staff have fine mound charts, Earl Castle, 5-1; and Don Games, a Memphisian, 4-1. Riding the crest of a three-game winning streak, Monroe's ace, Don Neuzel, has a 6-2 record, the same as Chuck Gross, Meridian, with a pair of wins over El Dorado and Pine Bluff in three days.

Bobby Brown, El Dorado, has the most wins with 14-5. Roy Jayne, Meridian, edges him on 15-7. Elmer Tatum, El Dorado, 12-5. Bill Halley, Walenga, has formed the most, 123, with an 8-6 record.

Greenville's Lucas, a batting, 278, but Don Dorrado has taken over the leading .562.

Meyer Quits; Les Fleming Is New Eagles' Skipper

DALLAS, July 24 (AP)—Dutch Meyer resigned today as manager of Dallas Eagles of the Texas League and was succeeded by Les Fleming.

Meyer, who was midway through his fourth season at the helm of the Eagles, resigned after a conference with Dick Burnett, Dallas oilman and sportsman who owns the Eagles.

It was apparently an amicable, joint agreement.

Burnett said Meyer will continue to work for him, drawing the same salary, as a baseball scout "and maybe in my oil business, too."

It was believed the move was made to get the Eagles back on the winning track. After winning the pennant and Dixie Series last year, the Dallas club is now in last place, despite some hefty talent purchases by Burnett.

Fleming will be making his second try at managing in the Texas League this year. He started as manager of the Beaumont Exporters but was deposed in mid-June and succeeded by Mickey Livingston.

A few days later, Fleming, then and now the league's leading hitter, was sold to Dallas along with Burz Clarkson, for $20,000 and three players. It was the biggest deal in the league's history.

Calumet's Fleet Bird Claims Top Money In Sunset

INGLEWOOD, Cal., July 23 (AP)—Calumet's Fleet Bird captured the $109,300 Sunset Handicap today, nosing out the favored Rejected in one of the closest finishes in the history of the race.

Traveling the long mile and five eighths in 2:10.45, equalling the track record, the Calumet star beat out the flying Rejected in a finish that took minutes to decide via the cameras.

A wild shout came up from the restless crowd of 32,000 as the Calumet number flashed first on the board.

The debut was the second in a row in a $100,000 race for the King Ranch star. Rejected's last week he was upset by a length by Compendium.

Six Fifteen was third in the field of eight horses who raced in this, the final day of the Hollywood Park season.

Fleet Bird, a disappointment all year, collected $63,200 for the Calumet empire and returned $10,400; $11.00 and $3.00 to the faithful who bet on him. Rejected, the heavy favorite, paid $2.80 and $2.00, and Six Fifteen $5.50.

Indian Returns In Tag Match; Cronin Referee

After an absence of many weeks Indian Chief Apache returns to the local mat scene Tuesday night, when he pairs with Jackie Fargo in a feature tag match against Danny Dusek and Joe Campbell at Kallio's Arena.

Pat "Big Boy" Cronin, nominated referee by the Arena fans last week, turned in a highly commendable job—so much so that he has been appointed referee for the Tuesday match.

Two one-fall preliminaries, each with a ten minute time limit, pit opposing tag members against one another. The first prelim begins at 8:15.

Cronin has long been a bitter rival of Apache, the two having some fast and furious bouts here; and more recently, Fargo encountered a fair shake.

Moscow May Be Disturbed With Growth Of Red China

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

World communism is claiming victory from the Geneva conference, but Soviet leaders may well have unspoken misgivings. They must be worried about this problem:

How strong can they let Red China become?

Three months ago, Red China's polished, smiling Premier and foreign minister, Chou En-lai, was just a big man in China. Today he is a big man on the world stage. And, on top of that, his performance at Geneva eclipsed that of Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov.

At the moment, Chou seems to have assumed the role of master of continental Asia and spokesman of an Asia-for-Asians policy.

The Soviet Union, with its 210 million people, can stand in awe of the tremendous latent power in China's 600 millions. But the Russians at the same time must, willy-nilly, push Red China toward the realization of her ambitions as a world power.

The Russians historically have no love for power on their borders. Balkan Communists once dreamed of a South Slav federation. The prospect of a strong federation next door, with its possible attraction for non-Russian areas of the Soviet Union, frightened Moscow. The inspirer of the idea, Yugoslavia's Marshal Tito, was read out of the Communist family as a heretic. In the other countries, men who espoused the idea were killed.

The Russians, while hailing the results of Geneva, won far less there than the Chinese did. Russian gains were in the possibility of weakening collective Western defenses and driving wedges between the United States and its allies.

But Chou En-lai pushed Red China onto the international stage as a power in her own right.

There was a hint in Chou's various post-Geneva statements that the Russians were politely invited to stand aside in Asia. He said:

"In the interest of safeguarding the collective peace of Asia, it is our opinion that the nations of Asia should consult among themselves and cooperate with each other on the basis of principles of mutual respect for territorial integrity and sovereignty, nonaggression and noninterference in each other's affairs, equality and mutual benefit and peaceful coexistence. In addition we are ready to strive jointly with other nations outside Asia who cherish the same object."

While the Soviet Union occupies a large slice of Asia, the Russians are not Asians. Are they among those "others" whom the Chinese wave to the sidelines?

Moscow has watched Chou throw his weight around a good deal lately. His trip to India and Burma resulted in joint statements expressing the Asia-for-Asians sentiment. In an interview with a British Labor party leader, Chou openly called for a Pan-Asian security system.

Not once in the interview did he mention the U.S.S.R.

Are the Russians happy about Chou's rocket-like progress? In Moscow, Premier Georgi Malenkov let it be known, in an interview with a visiting pro-Moscow Indian, that the Russians "would welcome an understanding with India on the lines of the recent Nehru-Chou meeting. Possibly Chou had the field too much to himself.

Puerto Ricans Debate On New Strike Measure

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico, July 24 (AP)—Debate began in the Puerto Rican legislature today on legislation empowering the island government to take over control of docking facilities. The government proposed the emergency measure to deal with a food crisis growing out of a 30-day longshoremen's strike.

Both the House and Senate were expected to vote on amended versions of the original government proposal before the end of the day. A joint committee then would iron out differences between the House and Senate drafts.

Special committees in each of the chambers have already considered the bill since it was submitted by the government last Monday. The administration had asked a permanent law, but both the House and Senate committees limited the measure. The bills

Farmers Vote To Continue Control On Wheat Crop

WASHINGTON, July 24 (UP)—Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson promised Saturday to carry out "constructively and equitably" the tough federal wheat production controls voted by the nation's farmers Friday.

He said that if Congress passes legislation recommended by President Eisenhower for sliding scale, 75 to 90 per cent of parity price supports, "the adjustments will be made under an effective level of price supports."

The wheat farmers voted the toughest controls in history on next year's production. All farmers would cease to be effective Jan. 31, 1955.

The House version would give the legislature power to decree an emergency through the law itself.

growing more than 15 acres in 1955 will have to accept average allotments cutting plantings about 13 per cent, or forfeit price supports.

Those violating the allotments also will have to pay a cash fine on each bushel produced on excess acreage.

What makes the program the most drastic ever is that all will have to stay within allotments that may be set on other crops—such as corn, cotton, peanuts—to be eligible for supports on any one crop.

Farmers with 10 acres or more idled by allotments will get a "total farm" allotment on everything they grow except for hay and pasture.

If the wheat farmers had voted against controls, government price guarantees on next year's crop could be cut to 50 per cent of the so-called "fair" parity price.

Benson remarked that the "results of the referendum on wheat marketing quotas show that most of our wheat farmers recognize the serious wheat surplus problem and are willing to help bring supplies into better balance with demand."

The vote was surprisingly light in view of the number of farmers eligible to ballot. Unofficial preliminary returns from the Agriculture Department showed that 73.3 per cent of 267,104 farmers voting for the quota program, which is coupled with the stiff controls on other crops. A two-thirds vote was necessary for approval.

The vote was the smallest in four years and, for a time, was a touch-and-go proposition. From 800,000 to one million farmers were eligible to vote.

The total vote from 47 reporting states was 195,801 for the controls and 71,303 against. Connecticut, where only seven votes were cast last year, had not yet reported.

The big wheat-producing states approved. Kansas, leading wheat producer, gave a 72.8 per cent vote of approval, compared with 80 per cent last year; Oklahoma, 81.8 per cent this year compared with 89.8 per cent last year; North Dakota, a tremendous 95.7 per cent vote of approval, but still lower than last year's 98.6 per cent.

Chrysler Plans To Open Monday

DETROIT, July 24 (AP)—Chrysler Corp., all of its assembly lines shut down by a strike this week will get back into auto production Monday.

The strike was called off on orders of the international executive board of the CIO United Auto Workers. It held with the company that a walkout of 10,700 at Chrysler's main Dodge plant last Monday was contrary to contract.

Officers of Dodge local 3 bowed to the UAW's order today. Local 2 pickets ringed and shut down Dodge Main last Monday. It claimed the company had instituted a speed-up requiring one man to do the work of two.

Students Will Present Play At Country Club

Northeast State will offer a triple bill of entertainment Thursday at 8 p.m. at the Bayou DeSiard Country Club. It was announced by the Fine Arts Department.

"The Happy Journey," a summer workshop play, and a humorous skit will be presented by the speech section and a program of varied instrumental and choral arrangements will be featured by Eloy Fominaya and Joe Barry Mullins of the music faculty.

Refreshments will be served to guests as a part of the evening's entertainment at an entrance cost of $1.25 because of the attendance number being limited.

"The Happy Journey," a one-act production, was written by Thornton Wilder, popular playwright, in preparation of his successful three-act drama, "Our Town."

Members of the cast include: Barbara Peters as Mrs. Kate Kirby, Lamar Mullican as Elmer Kirby, and Alice Mae Tarpley in the part of their married daughter, Beulah. Marie Feazel and George Foreman, two pupils of the Northeast State Campus Laboratory School, will carry the parts of the youngest Kirbys. George C. Brian, assistant professor of speech, is to play the flexible role of stage manager.

Featured in the humorous skit

THESE TWO LOCAL STUDENTS will be editors of the two major student publications of Louisiana Tech during the coming school year. Thelma Parsons (left) of Route 1, West Monroe, will edit the college yearbook, the Lagniappe. Arthur Matthews (right), Milhaven Road, Monroe, will be the student editor of the Tech Talk, weekly newspaper, which he has edited the past two years.

will be Betty Jean Jones and Gen-try Jones.

The chorus will perform Darius Milhaud's "Cantata of Peace," and arrangements of "Three Blind Mice," Farrant's "Lord, for Thy Mercies' Sake," and other classical and popular compositions.

The instrumental ensemble will offer selections from "The King and I," an Hungarian folk song, "Dark Eyes," and modern march numbers.

Tickets to the event may be obtained from Miss May Read, Harry Lemert, George Brian, Eloy Fominaya, Joe Barry Mullins, members of the chorus, band or Speech Club of Northeast or telephoning 3-5121.

Food Prices Up; Just Under Peak Of Last October

WASHINGTON, July 24 (AP)—Rising food prices edged living costs up slightly in June to the highest point since January and close to last October's peak.

The government Bureau of Labor Statistics reported its index rose one tenth of one per cent. This brought the index to 115.1 per cent of the 1947-49 average, compared with 115.0 in May and October's 115.4 record level.

Generally speaking, living costs are holding stable. They are only one half of one percent above a year ago. Statistics Commissioner Ewan Clague said the outlook is for "continued strength" in consumer prices without much change either way.

Clague noted that while prices are higher so is worker income, or purchasing power. Average factory worker earnings increased 94 cents between May and June to $71.68, the largest increase since December, 1952. This was attributed partly to pay raises and partly to some increase in working hours. However, the weekly earnings of average factory workers are 36 cents under last year's postwar peak for the month of June.

Higher prices for fresh fruits and coffee led the June food price advance of four tenths of one per cent. Fresh vegetable prices were down, with such sharp cuts as 28 per cent for tomatoes, 25 per cent for green beans, 24 per cent for lettuce and 13 per cent for cabbage.

But new crop potatoes were 27 per cent higher and celery was up 13 per cent. Meat, egg, and milk prices were down a bit. Apparel costs were lower, as were prices for such items as used cars, auto tires and gasoline.

Rents were unchanged in June—the first month since World War II they have not gone up. Some slight rent increase were reported in large cities and there were some reductions in smaller communities. Clague said that rising prices for corn and other feeds, because of farm area drought conditions, may cause increased marketing of livestock soon. He said pork prices should decline by about five per cent, mainly chops, ham and bacon.

Larger Council For Girl Scouts In Formation

Adults interested in the formation of a larger Girl Scout Council which may serve the 14 parishes comprising the 5th Congressional District have been meeting in the Educational Building of the First Methodist Church in Monroe, during the past week. These committee meetings will continue into next week. On July 29th at 7:30 p.m. an area study committee meeting will be held at the Bayou Desiard Country Club to hear the reports of the committees and to map future steps toward organization. The committees will submit their plans of work for offering Girl Scout services to the girls in the proposed area council.

Miss Martha D. Auten of Memphis, Tenn., member of the national field staff, has been meeting with the committees.

The formation of such a council is part of a nation-wide program for extending council coverage to all sections of the country. Such coverage would eventually mean that lone troops would no longer operate on an unassisted basis but would become a part of a council, thus receiving more direct help on Girl Scouting from a central office nearer to them.

If the northeast Louisiana parishes vote to form a council, a central office would be established which would offer a wide variety of services to girls and leaders. The total council would operate on a decentralized basis through districts and neighborhoods. Districts would have representatives on the board of directors and would be subdivided into neighborhoods so that the work of the council would be carried on as close to the troops as possible.

The proposed council would include the two existing councils in Monroe and Ruston and lone troops in Bastrop, Farmerville, Delhi, Columbia, Wisner, Oak Ridge, Waterproof, St. Joseph, Jonesboro, Winnsboro, and Tallulah. Other communities in the proposed area have evinced interest in starting the Girl Scout program when the new council is formed.

Representatives to the area study committee include: Mrs. George Forman, Mrs. J. N. Riddle and Mrs. S. C. Strausser. Alternates are: Mrs. Dee Strickland, Mrs. Shelby Meek and Mrs. Harvey Spence.

Your Problems

By ANN LANDERS

Dear Mrs. Landers: I am a young mother of 25. My husband, who is 27, comes from a large, domineering family which has always treated me like an outsider. The in-laws' frequent demands and insults have made me resent them. The only solution, it seems, is for us to move to California (we both like it there). However, I feel bad about leaving my own parents; my father is recovering from a serious illness and is unable to work. They are very independent and have refused all our offers to help. Yet, I feel that I should not leave them. Please advise me. — Renee.

Oh-oh, playing favorites! If you expect your husband to put several thousand miles between him and his family to help you run away from them, you have to be prepared to leave your family, too!

You can't have everything, sister. If you are convinced that you and your husband will fare better away from his family, it is not fair of you to allow the circumstances of your family to interfere. Either put up with his family and learn to get along with them or stay near your own parents or shake the dust of both camps.

Your family has indicated that it does not want, or need your help, so you really have no excuse.

PS — If you think California is a cure — all you have to do is "think" coming and I hope you have prospects there before you leave here. "It ain't what it used to be."

Dear Ann Landers: I am 47, have been divorced for 12 years, have my own home, car and a good job. I have been dating a divorced man who is in his early 50's. He is good to me and I like him quite well. However, he supports his two young children who resent me and he hasn't a cent to his name outside of his salary. He has asked me to marry him. I am tired of living a lonely life. What do you think my chance of happiness would be? — Lonesome.

What price, company? The man sounds like he might be a luxury. He's too involved and will only involve you, too. If you do not genuinely love him enough to accept the sacrifices and responsibilities that marrying him would entail, probably supporting him, too, you'd better stay lonely a little while longer.

Dear Mrs. Landers: I am nearly 29 and have never gone steady with a girl. A few weeks ago I brought over a girl to meet my parents while I picked up something at the girl. Now, this girl doesn't mean anything to me but my mother's attitude has me worried. If I do find a girl I want to date, should I keep her away from my parents until I am ready to announce our engagement or what? — No Name.

That would not be fair to the girl. Respectable children let the parents look the steady date over — whether the parents "take" to the girl or not. You have to learn to judge a girl yourself so go ahead and date girls you think you want to date or drop them according to your own judgment.

You should listen to mom's version but keep an open mind and do a little judging of mom, too. Is she being fair? Is she just afraid of losing her son, etc? In the final analysis, you should be the one to choose your wife as you are the one who will be stuck with her.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of News-Start. Distributed by Chicago Sun-Times Syndicate.

If you're planning to whittle your waistline this summer, here's an exercise that might help. Keeping your knees straight and your feet together, touch your toes 10 to 20 times. This is excellent for toning the muscles, too.

MRS. W. A. BRADSHAW was, before her marriage, Miss Shirley Ann Gulley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Gulley, Jr., of Sterlington. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Ernest Bradshaw and the late Mr. Bradshaw also of Sterlington.

Post-Rush Vows Pledged In Lovely Summer Wedding At Trinity Methodist Church

In a beautiful candlelight ceremony at seven o'clock Saturday evening, July 24, at the Trinity Methodist Church in Ruston, Miss Elizabeth Thomas Rush, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Benjamin Rush of Ruston, became the bride of Lt. Thomas Rutledge Post, son of Mr. John William Post of Texarkana, Tex., and Mrs. William Floyd Gill of Glenmora. The Rev. William Pomeroy performed the double-ring ceremony.

A myriad of white cathedral tapers illuminated the altar which was artistically decorated with southern smilax, ivy and tall slender baskets of white mums and gladiolus.

Mrs. Marshall Bretz sang "O Perfect Love" and "Thine Is My Heart." Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white traditional wedding gown fashioned of Italian silk paper taffeta with a portrait neckline, accented by a deep fold of taffeta which revealed a yoke of Alencon lace. Her finger-tip veil of imported French illusion was attached to a matching lace crown embroidered with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of fleur d'amour, white sweetheart roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Orum Burkhalter of Shreveport was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Holt of Monroe, Mrs. James Gaddy of Ruston, Mrs. Marshall Terry of Dallas, Tex., and Miss Carolyn Hodge of Ruston, Mrs. Thomas Davis of Alexandria.

Each of the attendants were dressed in willow green organdy models over taffeta fashioned with butterfly sleeves of organdy and tulle, bouffant skirts and sculptured bodices. They wore matching picture hats of horsehair braid and carried basket arrangements of daisies, pom-pom mums and ivy.

Mr. John Fell of Alexandria served as best man. Ushers were Dr. Thomas Davis, Mr. Samuel Narrow, Mr. John Davidson, Mr. Robert Forrest and Donald Strain, Robert Settle III of Lexington, Ky., was junior usher and carried white ribbons down the aisle enclosing the guests with the family.

The bride's mother chose for the occasion a gray chiffon and lace model. Mrs. Gill, the bridegroom's mother, was becomingly attired in a blue crepe trimmed in rhinestones.

Garden Reception
A reception was held in the garden at the bride's parents home following the ceremony.

A white tiered organdy cloth overlaid the bride's table which was centered with the wedding cake which was embossed in flowers matching the bride's bouquet. The base of the cake was encircled with chantilly lace, cancanabra and the punch bowls were placed at the ends of the table. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd James and Mrs. Lewis James greeted the guests.

In the receiving line with the bride couple and their parents were members of the wedding party.

Others in the house party were Mr. Howard Hart, Mrs. Robert Settle, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. L., Mrs. J. W. Rush, Mrs. T. S. James, Miss May Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Love, Jr., Mrs. Allen Barksdale, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Siskey, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Guthrie, and Mr. and Mrs. George Nicol.

Alternating at the punch service were Mrs. Donn Platt, Mrs. Gordon Wells, Mrs. Edwin Hedge and Mrs. Donovan Burkhalter.

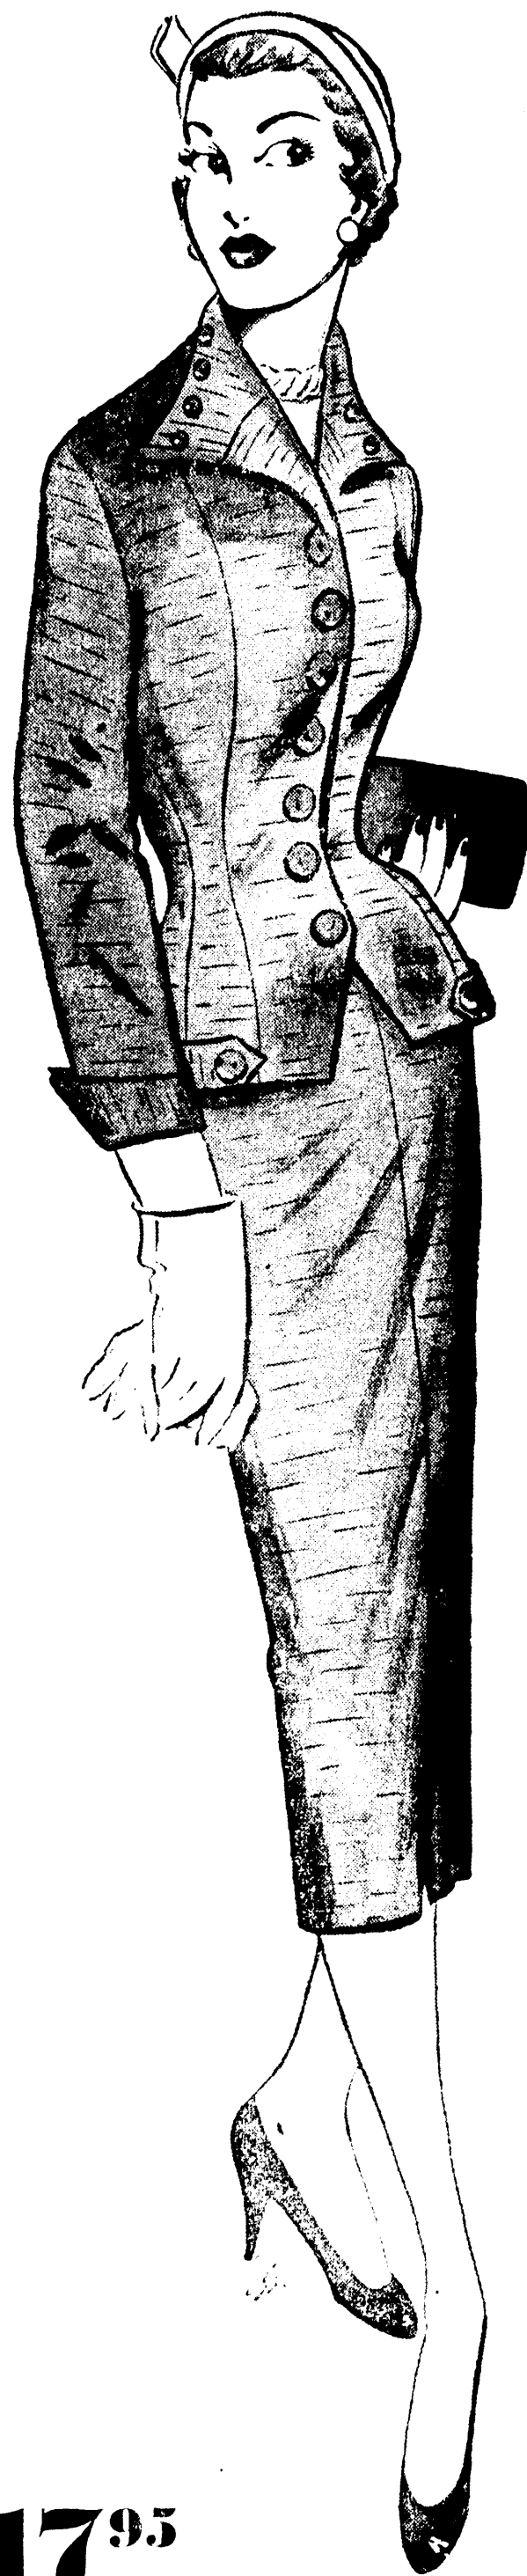

Assisting in serving were: Mrs. Davis Hayes, Mrs. William James, Jr., Miss Martha Nicol, Miss Mary Gertrude Rodriguez, Miss Doris Jane Tinsley, Mrs. Cecil Rogers, Mrs. Bob Rogers, Mrs. Bobby Evans, Miss Pat Hollis, Miss Jan Dennis, Miss Beverly Stovall, Miss Jane Connell, Miss Martha Nash, Miss Harriett Michaud, Miss Patsy King.

Out-of-Town Guests

Among the out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hart, Mrs. Robert Settle, Jr., of Lexington, Ky.; Mrs. J. W. Rush of Jackson, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Gill and Mrs. Tom Smart of Glenmora; Col. and Mrs. Louis Hoffpauir and children of Crowley; Mr. and Mrs. William Rodriguez; Mrs. Wood Brown; Mrs. Nelson Abell; Mrs. H. Massage Away Those Jowls

Even more than wrinkles, hanging jowls reveal the passage of the years in a very unflattering way. They change the contours of a woman's face, giving her a perpetually downcast expression.

Though sometimes due to overweight, this condition is usually caused by the sagging of the muscles just under the jawline.

Fortunately, when caught in its early stages it can be corrected with persistent massage.

You can easily find the area which requires massage by smiling broadly into a mirror. Note how the cheeks lift and feel the little ball of hard muscle that has formed.

Watch the muscle disappear as you cease smiling. That is the area in which you should work. Massage firmly with your finger tips, working upward only. Do this for several minutes at least once a day.

After massaging, apply face cream and splash on lots of cold water.

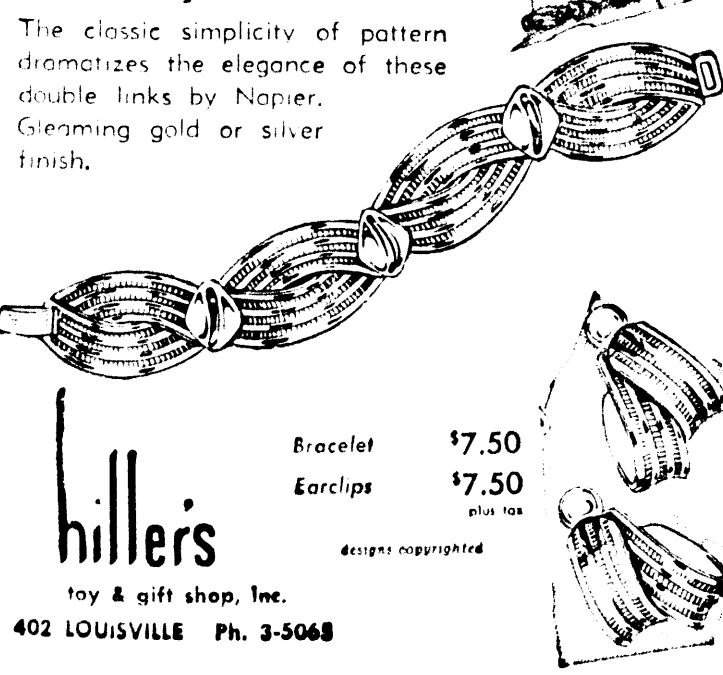

You can also help to restore these muscles to firmness by maintaining a pleasant expression throughout the day.

Wait those decided eggs you are planning to take to a picnic to lose, particularly sexy? Add finely grated onion, Worcestershire sauce and drained sweet pickle relish to the yolks when you mash them; season with salt and freshly ground pepper and add just enough mayonnaise to give a good consistency.

Monroe Garden Club Presents Gregory Conway

Members of the Monroe Garden Club are looking forward to the first fall meeting when they will have J. Gregory Conway, internationally known flower arranger as guest speaker. While in Monroe he will give a series of lectures and conduct classes.

Mr. Conway was born in Montana, educated in California and secured his degree in flower arranging from the University of Osaka, Japan. He is responsible for the first accredited art course in flower arrangement ever established in America, at the University of Southern California. He has served as guest lecturer on floral art for the Japanese, Mexican and Cuban governments as well as at the University of Georgia. Mr. Conway's three books, "Flowers, East - West," "Flowers, Their Arrangement" and "Conway's Treasury of Flower Arrangements," have made him well-known and well-loved among students of floral design.

Critics have said much of Mr. Conway's accuracy, technique and his dynamic presentations of these lectures. His programs never lag in interest; he usually starts out by describing the arrangement he intends to make with comments on various aspects of his work, such as period, design, pattern, color, containers, etc.

Mr. Conway served in army intelligence in World War II. He is author of "Who Knows - And What?" and "Who Knows - And What?"

Dr. Norman Cox Will Be Guest Leader In Series

He is a preacher of wide reputation and outstanding pulpit ability, having served as pastor of some leading Baptist churches in Georgia, Virginia, West Virginia, and Mississippi.

Music will be under the direction of Mr. Norville N. Marshall, minister of music of the First Baptist Church, Minden, Louisiana.

Services will be held each morning at 9:30 and each evening at 7:30 throughout the week.

MISS VIRGINIA LOUISE RUSSO'S engagement to Mitchell Milello is announced today. She is the daughter of Mrs. Victor Peptone and the late Ned Russo. Mr. Paul Milello is the father of the bridegroom. The wedding plans will be announced later.

Match Jewelry And Fragrance

One of the most charming ideas to come forth in a long time is a natural for teen-agers. It's matching your fragrance with your jewelry.

The idea lends itself well to the currently popular floral earrings. These conversation pieces consist of tiny flowers that cascade in shower bouquets or swing out in blossomy hoops. They are especially lovely on young girls.

It probably would be best to select the floral fragrance that most appeals to you and then buy earrings made of these flowers. If your allowance permits, buy dusting powder and other bath preparations in the scent, too. Then you can literally bathe in your flower. You can carry out the idea with other jewelry, too. Pearls, for example, are classic, always correct. When wearing them, wear your favorite fragrance, the one you feel instinctively is right for any occasion.

For dress-up occasions, when you wear rhinestones or other sparkling jewelry, choose a fragrance that you'd term intriguing, one that makes you stop and think about it, one that sparkles as a jewel.

Guard Diet At Beach

Sun and surf combine to do much for the beauty-seeking teenager. And since days at the beach are likely to be fun-filled, few teenagers have to be coaxed to get their share of the treatment. Unfortunately, many teenagers who spend their summers at beach resorts become careless in their eating habits. The crowd gathers on the sands after breakfast and remains there until dinnertime, munching on whatever can be bought at nearby food stands.

But a daily diet of hot dogs soaked in spices, soda pop, candy bars, ices and other novelty foods is certain to counteract the beauty benefits of sunning and swimming. So, if you're lucky enough to spend your summer at a beach resort, resolve now to eat a wholesome lunch every day. Don't let the crowd sway you into forming figure and complexion-ruining eating habits.

If you make up your mind ahead of time, you'll find it easier to stick to your decision. And don't attempt to compromise, for compromising nearly always is the beginning of defeat.

Ouachita Council
Make Plans

In spite of the heat, 19 of the 22 clubs participated in the parish council meeting last Saturday. This indicates the interest, cooperation and fine spirit of this wonderful group of women. It was a busy, short meeting as these women planned and signed up for 28 booths at the parish fair (only two left); determined the home demonstration program of work to be carried on in Ouachita in 1955; and completed plans for transportation of the members to Farm and Home Week at L. S. U. And, yes, they had time for a recreational hour with Watson, Cypress, Woodlawn and Okaloosa as hostesses. They served delicious and bountiful refreshments to this entire group of 55 women.

Transportation To Farm and Home Week
Ouachita Parish Home Demonstration Clubs, with the help of the council, have secured a bus to carry the women to L. S. U., August 9th. There are three seats unfilled on this bus. If you are interested in going on this bus with this group send your fee ($5.00) to the agent at once. Forst come—first served. Besides this bus load, Ouachita will have several groups who will go by car to L. S. U. for this occasion.

The agent will make reservations for all women, whether going by car or bus, who register with her and desire this service. By the agent registering the group, at the same time, all are housed in the same dormitory. Call or write if you want her to register you—call 3-2251.

Following are the clubs having members attend the Farm and Home Week Short Course: Bosco 2; Cadeville 1; Woodlawn 2; Watson 1; Colony 1; Cheniere 2; Progressive 2; McClendon 1; Lenwil 2; Drew 1; Liberty 2; Swartz 1; Eureka 1; Sterlington 2; and Okaloosa 1.

Horticultural Hints For August
And September
The rain makes us think of planting. Here are the suggestions as given by the L. S. U. garden specialist.

Do not plant small vegetable seeds on soil containing unrotted vegetable matter. This unrotted vegetable matter heats the soil and prevents normal root formation and growth.

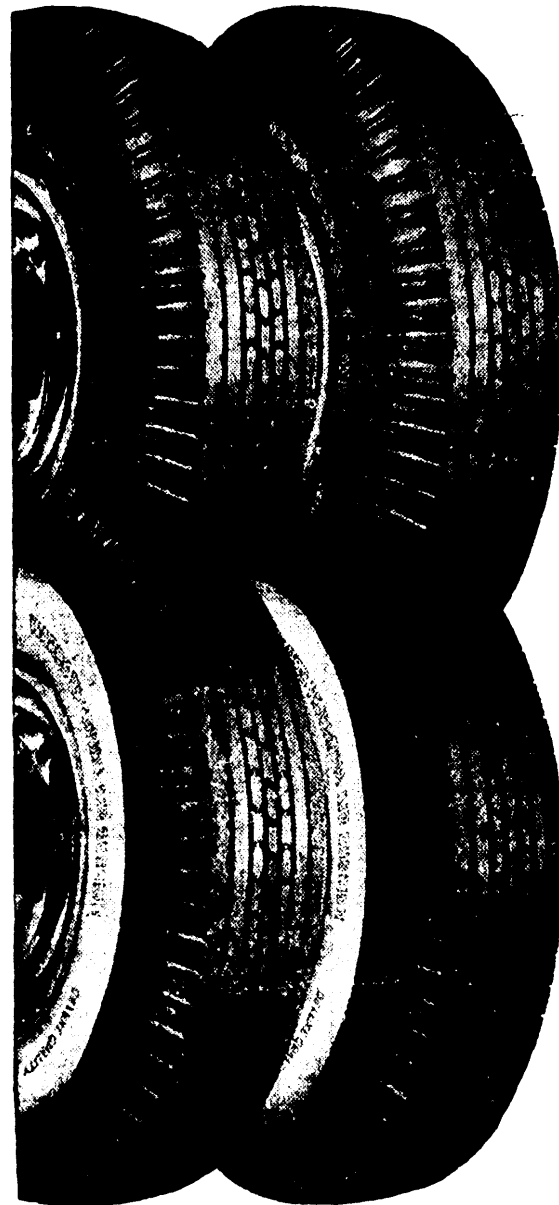

A small plot irrigated will give the family an excellent supply of fresh vegetables in the fall. It is almost impossible to have fall vegetables without irrigation. Water cools the soil and makes plant food by mixing and thoroughly dissolving one pound of 4-12-4 or 5-10-5 in five gallons of water. Use one pint of this solution to water each plant. It will not harm the plants but will give them the needed plant element for a quick start. Do not transplant plants deeper than they were in the plant bed.

Vegetables recommended by the specialist to plant in late August and early September are: pole and bush snap beans, pole and bush lima beans, beets, carrots, turnips, mustard, broccoli, Brussels sprouts, cauliflower, collards, cabbage, cucumbers, squash, shallots and onions, Irish potatoes (north Louisiana August 15 using small whole potatoes), radish. Varieties recommendations may be obtained by calling 3-2251 for Louisiana Planting Guide.
Before sudsing looped, pile or hooked rugs, baste a six-inch strip of muslin along one edge. Then, when you hang the rug to dry, you can fold the muslin strip over the line and fasten it with pins so that there will be no grooves made in the rug itself.
If you wear eyeglasses, try having several pairs. Have them in different shapes and colors so that you can wear them just exactly as you wear your other accessories.

Dr. Kagawa Famous Church Leader Guest

The public is reminded of the cordial invitation extended by the United Church Women of the Twin Cities to hear Dr. Toyohiko Kagawa when he speaks tomorrow evening at 7:30 p.m. in the First Methodist Church of Monroe. THE HOME SHIFT—

With Mildred Swift

Flowers Freshen Up After Rains

Just about all we can talk about is the rain. Didn't it come at a wonderful time? Our plants had taken about all the artificial watering they could stand — and we had taken about all the hose pulling we could stand.

Around The Yard

Don't forget to keep the old blooms and seed pods picked from your crepe myrtles. They'll bloom again through the summer and may be into fall. Last year I stripped the seed pods and threw them in a bed on top of the mulch. A few sifted down and sprouted. This year I have a number of three inch plants. One of the nursery men told me these seed are like the camellia — they seldom run true to the parent plant. He said that is the way new colors are born. I doubt that "born" is grammatically correct but you get the idea.

Our state garden specialist, Miss Winona Chaffee, says we shouldn't water shasta daisies too freely after they bloom. This may destroy the plants. Guess they like a nap after their flowering period and the constant watering keeps them awake too long.

Those interested in daylilies, I'm sure have heard of pink dream. Ben Arthur Davis says it is "the" pink of the day. The old unappreciated Hemerocallis is really coming into its own in landscape plants today. Watch the seed of this lily and your iris, if you use these to plant. Gather as soon as the pods turn a deep yellow. Later the capsules burst and the seeds fall to the ground. This is a good time of year to separate over crowded daylilies. Cut the leaves back about half way and keep watered.

Did you notice how green and fresh the evergreens look after the rains? When the weather gets hot and dry again, remember to wash the faces of azaleas, camellias, gardenias, boxwood, photinia hollies and others, late in the afternoon. This face washing doesn't take the place of regular soaking.

Your roses are resting now. Let them sleep awhile. The middle of August fertilize again with your favorite complete food and your fall blooms will be as lovely as the spring ones.

You can still transplant your bearded iris. If you want some fall color, plant a package of zinnia seed. While the ground is wet is a good time to get at the roots of those large weeds.

Next time you're driving around go by the Watt's home, 108 South 2nd, West Monroe. They have the "daintiest" little yard. Looks like a picture in a magazine. There is always something blooming there.

Also, drive by the Dewitt Smith home, 1801 Trenton, West Monroe and see the small tree on the left of the drive. I'm sure it must belong to the willow family, because it has leaves similar to those trees. But — the flowers look like small baby orchids. Please tell us the name of the tree. Mrs. Smith and I would like to know.

These summer days, cut flowers stay fresh such a short time in the house. Why not start a centerpiece from your vegetable supplies: carrots, beets, and sweet potatoes? All grow into nice, leafy green plants. Just cut off about one inch from the tops. Put them in water — and watch them grow. This is a good time of year to start growing a pot of parsley. The children love to grow nasturtium seeds in an egg shell with a little earth. I've never tried this last idea, but I have a friend who keeps her invalid daughter entertained with this shell planting.

Something New

There's a new refrigerator freezer tray in the making. It has an automatic stirrer for making ice cream.

Plentiful Foods

Ice cream, America's favorite dessert, is plentiful now and showing up on most food store specials. This is the 50th anniversary of the ice cream cone. According to the statisticians, the average person is eating 48 pounds of ice cream per year. Besides being good, ice cream is good for you. It gives energy, calcium and vitamin A.

Watermelons, cantaloupes, tomatoes, figs, sea food, frozen fruit juices, lettuce, cauliflower, beans, carrots, and celery should be plentiful during July and August.

Why Grow Old?

RUBY MERCER

Exercise And Rest Boon To Very Busy Radio Star

If you are one of Ruby Mercer's radio fans you may well have wondered if she has some special tie-in with the Fountain of Youth. She always seems so charming and relaxed and yet full of pep when you realize what a busy life she leads you will be even more amazed and even more eager to learn a few of her secrets.

Her programs are daily afternoon and evening shows, including Sunday, when she has her Mr. and Mrs. Opera show. Beside her daily shows, Miss Mercer acts as emcee at fashion shows, charity and society events, and never misses the opening of a play, picture, or any other event of importance.

Leading Soprano

Ruby's blond loveliness was not always behind a microphone. For years she was a leading soprano with The Metropolitan Opera Company. She appeared on Broadway as the star in "Forbidden Melody" and "La Vie Parisienne."

Knowing her versatile background, it is easy to see why Ruby Mercer is at home on Broadway, in radio, television, motion pictures and the musical world. I felt certain that she must have some special tricks to keep up the pace she does year after year. I want to pass two of them along to you today. Both can be applied to your daily lives.

She said "A broadcasting studio is a very busy place at all times; everyone is busy getting guests and news ready for broadcasting and a broadcast, like any other medium of entertainment, must be on time. Regardless of how you feel the show must literally go on."

Keep Your Head

"I decided long ago to be worthy of Kipling's merit of approval. 'If you can keep your head when those about you are losing theirs and blaming it on you'—Once that becomes your outlook, nothing can upset your serenity. In fact, I find that the more tense and excited others get, the calmer I become."

That is certainly a lesson we can all use to great advantage in our daily living!

Her second secret is her long habit of daily exercise. This plays an important part in her daily routine and is perhaps one of the greatest factors in keeping her so slim, young and attractive. Each morning she devotes ten minutes to exercise.

In the evening her exercise is a matter of posture and relaxation rather than exertion. She lies down on the floor and puts her feet up 12 inches higher than her head and remains in this position for 15 minutes.

Ruby reports that no matter how keyed up or hectic or tired she may feel at times, the result is complete relaxation and a lethargic feeling which produces sweet, peaceful slumber the minute her head touches the pillow.

What better routine could we follow — keep calm when others aren't, begin the day with exercise and end it with a relaxing routine which brings peaceful slumber. Remember, too, that Ruby's hours are filled with interested activity.

Garden Center Notes

By Mary M. Jardine

Exhibit Native Mallows

Members of the Bayou de l'Ange Garden Club staged the center flower show this week. In the arrangement section first place was awarded to Mrs. Carter Ackel and Mrs. Buddy Tolson for a mass arrangement in tones of yellow and brown. The arrangement was made in a brown bean pot and set on a rustic cypress base. Brown dock, nandina berries and bright yellow zinnias were effectively combined.

Mrs. Shelby Cagle was awarded second place. Mrs. Cagle's container was made of a round section of log with the bark still on it. She created a windswept arrangement of pine, green seed pods of castor bean and green and red calladium leaves as a focal point. Pine cones in various sizes concealed the needle-point holder.

Third place award to Mrs. R. D. Farr, Jr. for a lovely mass arrangement of dark red canna leaves and red coleus tinged with green, a cool and long lasting arrangement.

In the horticulture section, blue ribbon to Mrs. Farr for Fantasy zinnia, blue ribbon to Mrs. Carter Ackel for red dianthus and a red ribbon to Mrs. Shelby Cagle for globe amaranth (bachelor button). Our judges were Mrs. B. H. Talbot and Mrs. Malcolm Hood of Ruston.

Mrs. Charles Searey exhibited some beautiful pink and deep red native mallows, the largest blooms I have seen. And a bloom of one of our most beautiful native flowers, the white spider lily (Thymocallis occidentalis). The stout two foot stem bears an umbel of airy white flowers, in which the saucer-shaped crown is surrounded by long, very narrow petals. This is one of our exotics and is most effective when grown in a hot garden or along the edge of a pool.

The Louisiana Society for Horticultural Research is really getting under way. A board meeting was called at Lafayette on July 10th and the following officers were elected: Mrs. U. B. Evans, Lafayette, president; Mr. Ira Nelson, Lafayette, treasurer; and Mrs. Thomas Bostie, Lafayette, secretary. The Nelson leaves on August 7th for Ecuador, Peru and

SOUTHERN GARDENER—

By William Lanier Hunt

Garden Of Roses At Bagatelle

NICE, France. — We said last week that the flower garden at L'Hay-les-Roses was a large collection of roses where one can see most of the old varieties as well as many of the modern ones. In one section of the huge park and forest just outside Paris, which the French call Bois de Boulogne, there is another large rose garden.

I had thought I could get off the subway one station before Porte de Versailles which was the station indicated as the closest to the rose garden. On my map, it looked as if I might find a lot of new shrubs and perennials in another garden. As they so often do in Paris, this garden turned out to be more of an amusement park than a garden, and I had to walk a mile through the woods to the Bagatelle Rose Garden.

This is where roses from breeders all over the world send their new varieties to be grown and judged against the others. Bagatelle was a breathtaking sight. I came out of the woods and shrubbery all of a sudden to be astonished at the sight of the most exquisite garden of roses almost farther than the eye could see!

The new varieties for 1954 are growing, several together in groups up and down the broad walks of the formal gardens and in front of the pillar roses and tree roses.

These new ones do not have names, of course, but only numbers until they are judged. They actually keep account of the number of blossoms each new variety produces during the season to be able to score them accurately.

In the garden certain roses amongst the older varieties have been planted because of the fine landscape effect they produce in mass and on pillars or trellises. I was drawn clear across the garden by a pillar of deep bright pink roses in the distance. Every time I looked through my color camera it stuck out in the landscape. The name of this pillar turned out to be Mrs. W. Flight, a multiflora seedling originated by Cutbush in 1906. Even when almost ready to drop, they were fresh enough looking to make the whole pillar a beautiful sight.

The "bloomingest floribunda I ever saw" is what my notes say. I just talked with a fruit merchant on the elevator and he just Meilland. The elevator lady complained that even Spain has been having strange weather this year and his fruits from there were curved beds of them. An orange not too good.

red floribunda called "Concerto" (1952 Louise Meilland) caused me to write "what a color!"

Well, the greatest surprise of all was kept from me until the very last. Just as I was changing film, my eye alighted on something out of the world in light yellow roses. It was one of the 1954 trials. A group of several bushes together in a circle as they are grown for trial.

My notebook has the following to say: No. 11 hybrid Polantha two and half feet tall. Most wonderful yellow Polyantha I ever saw. Undoubtedly will get the prize. Old flowers lovely and stay on. Numerous buds coming on still and the plants are in full bloom.

There is no more room in this column to more now. The column will undoubtedly quote from these notes later. I made color slides of all the most worthwhile roses and found some useful looking perennials for southern states. This column is being written from Nice and my trip down here through the Chateau country will come next week. All the newspapers have accounts of how cold it is in England and northern Europe. It has been up to 95 here in Nice and I ever saw" is what my notes say. I just talked with a fruit merchant on the elevator and he just Meilland. The elevator lady complained that even Spain has been having strange weather this year and his fruits from there were curved beds of them. An orange not too good.

TIME FOR A CHANGE ELECT

Frank Ellis For U. S. Senator

The Hammond Vindicator is supporting Frank Ellis for United States Senator. One reason, among others, is that he is from the Sixth Congressional district. This district has never had the honor of having representation in the U. S. senate, the honor going to those from other districts. The nearest to having a senator from this district was when the late Jared V. Sanders declined to accept the position, because he would have left Louisiana in the hands of the Lambrmont faction.

Frank Ellis has a magnificent background. His family connections have been signally honored in the highest positions in Louisiana. The late T. C. W. Ellis served on the bench in New Orleans for many years; the late Stephen D. Ellis served on the Court of Appeal from this district, the same position now held by Judge Robert S. Ellis, Jr., whose father served as district attorney and later as judge on the district court bench. Still another Ellis honored Louisiana by serving in the Congress for several years. This was E. John Ellis, referred to as the silver-tongued orator from the Pelican State. Frank Ellis' father, Harvey V. Ellis, now retired and living in Lacombe, practiced law in Covington for a half century, where he participated in many of the notable cases tried. The careers of judges and attorneys in the Ellis families bespeak volumes for Frank Ellis.

Frank Ellis has practiced law in New Orleans for some time and has been retained by many business interests in cases of litigation. He has been highly successful, and if elected to the U. S. senate, will serve the people of Louisiana with an eye to their best interests.

This newspaper has no mud to toss at the opponents of Frank Ellis, but one of them has been derelict in representing Louisiana at a time when millions of dollars were hung in the balance. The tide-lands case was perhaps the most important to arouse the people of several states, including Louisiana. Where was Senator Ellender during the hearings in Washington? According to Bolivar E. Kemp, Jr., former attorney general of Louisiana, the senior senator was not available at any of the hearings. Despite this evident fact, a senator from Texas — "What Price" Daniel, had the temerity to say that Senator Ellender had rendered invaluable service to the state. Friends of Frank Ellis immediately called the hand of the Texan. Bolivar

Kemp delivered the most telling blow when he cited the record of Senator Ellender, regarding the important tidelands case. Some few daily papers tell for the bank pawned by the Texas senator in behalf of Louisiana's senior senator, Friends of Ellis and Kemp did not swallow the hook, line and sinker.

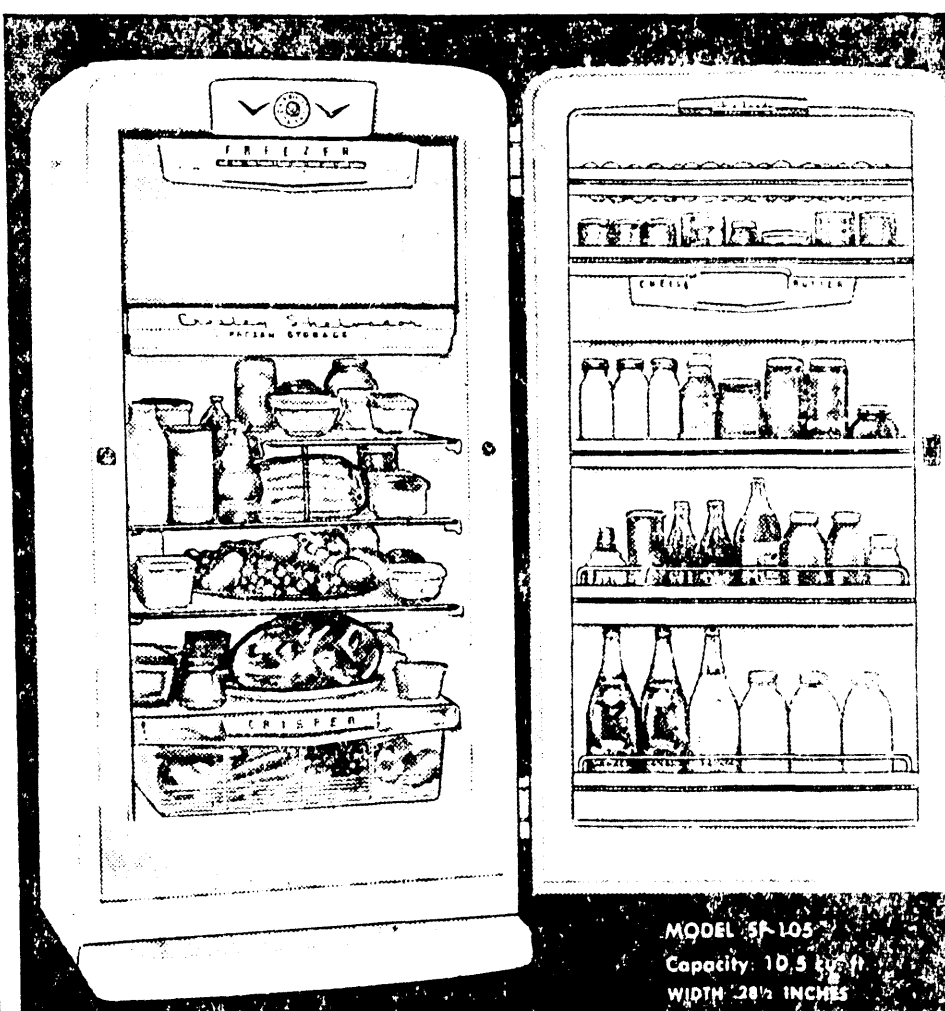

The Times-Picayune regards the seniority of Senator Ellender as of paramount interest. The Times-Picayune should point out what the Senator has done during his 18 years, besides occupying a seniority position, and making a world-wide trip gathering trinkets. Readers of the aged morning daily of New Orleans, as well as its aging afternoon trumpet, do not concern in what is being said in behalf of Senator Ellender. They remember the campaign of Hewitt L. Bouchaud for governor, when, after supporting him vicariously, later stuck a butcher knife in his back and went over to another candidate.

Frank Ellis is waging a vigorous campaign, having addressed crowds in all of the 61 parishes of Louisiana. At each place he was cordially received, with promises of support next Tuesday, July 27. He is the most popular of the three candidates and it will not require 18 years of service to give Louisiana the representation it deserves, especially in cases like the Tidelands litigation.

Ellis is a tried and true Democrat. He refused to bolt the party when the Republicans made overtures to him. In this, he should have the everlasting thanks of the Democrats of Louisiana, with whom the Ellis influence has always been dominant.

Voters of the sixth district will rally to the cause of Frank Ellis, and the parishes of Washington, St. Tammany, Tangipahoa, Livingston, St. Helena and East Baton Rouge, are leaning strongly toward him. Ellis will carry the Sixth Congressional district by a majority of 20,000 to 20,000, reports indicate. Other parishes over the state indicate that he will secure strong and decisive support. Even Orleans parish is predicted to give him the top vote, which practically assures his election. Go to the polls and vote for Frank Ellis for United States senator next Tuesday.

Little Village Legend

By Preston Ames (Guest Columnist)
HOLLYWOOD, July 24 — The atom bomb, the flying saucer and the man from Mars, each reproduced at one time or another by Hollywood with considerable imagination, if not much authenticity, were easy for filmland experts in comparison with creating the little village that wasn't there.

Brigadoon, the Highland hamlet of fantasy and legend, first came into prominence as setting of the record-breaking stage hit of the same name, and now has taken on new proportions in a lavish MGM CinemaScope musical. According to the story this is the village that appears one day in each 100 years, breaking out of the Scottish mists and disappearing again still untouched by the progress — be it good or bad — of civilization and time. As art director at MGM I watched the creation develop from its very beginning.

While Cyl Charisse is Gene Kelly's main reason for leaving the outside world and joining the once-every-century club in the filmplay, the appearance of Brigadoon alone on the huge screen may be enough to send moviegoers rushing for Scottish travel folders. They should be warned, however, that the only Brigadoon they'll find in Scotland is a bridge over the Doon River, which is what the hitting word means.

Movie fans will have to be satisfied with seeing its picturesque MacDonachy Square, thatched-roof cottages, old abbey ruins, heather-covered hills, lochs, woodland streams and forests abounding with Highland cattle, deer, grouse and other game from a seat in their favorite theater.

This Brigadoon began with a rough map drawn in the MGM offices of Supervising Art Director Cedric Gibbons and myself as Art Director.

From that, like Topsy, it just grew. But it grew with help of a mountain of research material, the aid of a native-born Scotchman who became the picture's technical advisor, the thinking of Director Vincente Minnelli, Producer Arthur Freed and Alan Jay Lerner, who wrote the screen play, book and lyrics with music by Frederick Loewe.

These men and Kelly, who could call on his own experiences in Scotland last year, became the "fifty fathers." Paralleling their planning was George Gibson, for whom painting of the largest scenic backgrounds in the studio's history became a work of love. Gibson, head of the MGM scenic department, was born, raised and received his early art training in Edinburgh.

The biggest challenge in making this picture was to combine the feeling of fantasy with a feeling of reality.

A village that disappears for a century at a time is fantasy in itself. But it must be startlingly real to our two modern American boys, Gene Kelly and Van Johnson, when they find it existing just as it did in the 18th century. Every detail of it had to be authentic to the time and the place.

Some pertinent facts were provided by the Lerner script. The boundaries of Brigadoon, beyond which its residents could not wander or the enchantment would be broken, were established as the old bridge, the stone wall, Loch Harold and the old kirk road. Another scene, in which the village patriarch explains the "miracle" leading to its strange disappearances and reappearances, gave the hamlet's history.

A series of conferences at the studio determined other points. It was determined that approximately 400 people lived in Brigadoon, some 25 of them around its square. The rest resided in cottages, like that of Fiona Campbell (Miss Charisse) and her family, scattered among the hills and along the dirt roads leading to the square. It was the actual geography of Brigadoon within its boundaries that became our first major problem.

One scene, for example, called for Kelly and Miss Charisse to pass through six different settings, from the Square to the hill where they perform their first dance. It was after reading this scene that we decided the first thing needed was a map, so we could lay out these different settings in relation to each other.

Thus I placed six cottages, including those of the village candy-maker, baker and weaver, and that of the story's bridegroom, Charlie Dalrymple, around MacDonachy Square. For the wedding sequence, in which Virginia Bosler plays the bride just as she did in the original Broadway company, a large clearing was plotted for the gathering of nearly the entire population, representing seven different clans. Most of the clans people were established as being engaged in farming, dairying or weaving, logically the main occupations of Brigadoon.

It was when setting down to details of construction — both of terrain and of the characteristic "croft" houses and their furnishings — that the task of research hit its peak.

Caldwell School Board Office Bldg. Opened

COLUMBIA, July 24—(Special)—Citizens of Caldwell parish turned out here yesterday for the official opening of the new $44,000 parish school office building.

Supt. of Schools, T. L. Johnston, who is serving his 18th year as head of Caldwell parish schools, said that the building was a "tribute to the citizenry of the parish and that a vote of thanks was due each school board member and citizen for making the project a reality."

Air conditioned throughout the school board office is constructed of brick and steel and adjoins the parish courthouse.

Housed in the school board building are private offices for the superintendent, visiting teacher, farm supervisor, lunch room superintendent, music superintendent, book-keeping department, classroom superintendent, board room and storage room.

The school board office had previously been located in the courthouse. The money for its erection was taken from funds secured from sale of timber owned by the school board.

State Supt. of Schools, Shelby M. Jackson, was on hand for the formal opening along with members of the Caldwell parish school board.

Hours of the official opening were from 2 to 6 p.m. and hundreds of persons were taken on guided tours throughout the building.

My Answer

By BILLY GRAHAM

QUESTION: I am a professing Christian; I work with a man who seems to be always happy and attributes it to the joy of the Lord in his heart. I think it is all a matter of temperament. What do you think?

ANSWER: Obviously, the difference between you and your workmate is that, while you have a profession, your friend has a possession. If Jesus Christ were truly in your heart, then you would know what your friend was speaking about because you would have the very same experience. However, I suppose we ought to distinguish between happiness and joy. Happiness is that mysterious and illusive quality which is the product of what happens. It is a fine-weather word, a word of summer skies and peaceful harbors. It is a word which denotes an intermittent experience. We can no more reckon on it than we can reckon on a good day of sunshine in April. It might happen, but then, it might not. Joy is something deeper and far more glorious. Joy, according to the Apostle Paul, is a Christian duty. It is not a matter of temperament or of circumstances, for you will remember, he said, "Rejoice in the Lord always," and then, as if he thought some might be thinking that this is a very rash commandment and quite impossible of attainment, in order to convince these people, he added hastily, "and again I say rejoice." (Phil. 4:4). Jesus says, "Those things have I spoken unto you that my joy might remain in you and that your joy might be full." (John 15:11). If you do not have this joy, let Jesus Christ come into your heart now, and you will find that He puts a song in the heart and upon the lips.

San Diego Gives Up Fluoridation Of City Water

SAN DIEGO, Calif. July 24 (AP)—The only people drinking fluoridated water in this city of 460,000 today, after getting it in their public supply for a year and a half, now will have to buy in bottles already treated or treat it themselves.

They are admittedly few. Neither side in the highly controversial issue over fluoridation of water for its purported dental health properties offers any estimates.

Fluoridation was voted out in June 50,789 to 44,463.

It had been started in 1952 by action of the city council after a series of public hearings.

Sold in Bottles

One of the principal arguments of those favoring repeal of the council's order for treatment of city reservoirs was that citizens who wanted it could get the same result from private supplies.

The only bottled water company in the city delivering fluorine treated water, in one and five gallon bottles said there had been a sharp increase in demand.

Principal opponents of fluoridated water said it was detrimental to the general health. Others objected on religious grounds.

Man In City Jail Wanted In Arkansas

E. J. Courson, a 33-year-old Bastrop man now serving six months in the Monroe city jail for escape, is wanted in Warren, Ark., on an automobile theft charge, Chief of Detectives H. L. Tolbert said Saturday.

Tolbert said he received word from Sheriff Lee Temple in Warren Saturday morning that Courson is believed to have stolen an automobile in Warren on July 14, several days after he escaped jail here.

He had been arrested originally and sentenced to 30 days in jail on a vagrancy charge. He was arrested for escaping in Bastrop on July 15 and transferred back to the jail here.

Tolbert said Temple would extradite Courson on the auto theft charge if necessary.

'Three Coins' Filmed In Technicolor In Italy

With six stars heading the cast and the historical beauty of Rome and Venice as a background, "Three Coins in the Fountain," one of Twentieth Century-Fox's major efforts in the new CinemaScope form, comes to the Paramount Theatre today.

Clifton Webb, Dorothy McGuire, Jean Peters, Louis Jourdan, Maggie McNamara, and Rossano Brazzi essay the principal roles in this triple love story from John H. Secondari's best-selling novel and to give the picture added dramatic power John Patrick, author of the current Broadway Drama Critics and Pulitzer Prize hit, "The Teahouse of the August Moon," transposed the story to film.

Producer Sol C. Siegel and Director Jean Negulesco took their stars and a large crew of technicians to Italy for all the exterior scenes. For the first time audiences will see in beautiful color by DeLuxe and through the expanded power of CinemaScope, which encompasses broad vistas, such wonders as St. Peter's, the Coliseum and Forum, the Villa Madama, the Spanish Steps and the Fountain di Trevi in Rome. In Venice the Palazzo di Doges and the Grand Canal were filmed as background for important sequences in the story. Much of the Italian countryside also came into the range of the CinemaScope cameras as well as the natural grandeur of the Italian Alps which stand as a magnificent backdrop for the little village of Merano where scenes were filmed.

The story deals with the romantic yearnings of three American secretaries working in Rome.

Walt Disney Film Opens At The Jim Wednesday

Walt Disney's "The Living Desert," opening at the Jim Theatre Wednesday offers a series of incidents which build from the casual to those of startling dramatic intensity as this, his first true life adventure feature opens up a new world of entertainment.

A story of the odd creatures which inhabit the Great American Desert, the film shows again and again how nature compels even her lowliest creatures to adjust to environment if they are to survive. Those who thrive in the barren stretches of burning sands must learn to develop their own reservoirs, converting necessary moisture from the lush greens they nibble infrequently.

The environment not only changes leaves to cactus spines, it shows the turtle how to grow a protective plate; it instructs a tiny rodent in the art of protecting herself and her young against a marauding kingsnake. It develops a bird who would rather walk than fly, a reptile who prefers to slither sideways than go forward in conventional snake manner, and it plunges all wildlife into an atmosphere of alternate barrenness and screaming, unhindered floods. That, in turn, is followed by a gesture of utter flamboyance, and the floor of the desert literally springs into life with a carpet of incredibly lovely flowers, the result of the famed flashfloods which come and go with deadly speed.

As a film, "The Living Desert" remains unique in the field of entertainment, with its fabulous beauty, its savage reality, and its excitingly different approach, all projected in gorgeous Technicolor.

On the same program a 20-minute cartoon novelty will be shown. The cartoon is the story of Ben Franklin and Amos, an impertinent mouse.

Aren't you glad you use DIAL Soap?
(...don't you wish everybody did!)

Dial with AT-7 (Hexachlorophene) removes the cause of perspiration odor—keeps you nice to be around all day!

No matter how hot it is, you never have to worry about perspiration odor when you use Dial. It's the wonderful soap that contains AT-7 (Hexachlorophene). Dial is the only leading soap that has it, and there's nothing else as good at removing skin bacteria that cause odor.

Dial keeps these trouble-makers away, too. And because Dial's invisible AT-7 clings to your skin for days, its protection increases the more you use it. Depend on it—mild, fragrant Dial stops odor before it starts, and keeps it stopped all over, as not even deodorants can. When you use Dial Soap in the morning, you know you'll still be fresh at night! Better get a hot weather supply of Dial today.

Photomicro Proof

- These photomicros show you what a wonderful difference Dial makes. No. 1 shows how ordinary soaps leave thousands of skin bacteria. They cause odor. No. 2 shows how washing daily with Dial removes up to 95% of these trouble-makers.
